together regardless of their religious differences But the way of the world breaks down when it comes to the question of what we live for and it is this that revealed religions can illumine Fleischacker first suggests that secular conceptions of why life is worth living are often poorly grounded before going on to explore what revelation is how it can answer the question of worth better than secular worldviews do and how the revealed and way of the world elements of a religious tradition can be brought together Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1987-07
