Millennium Gone A Novel:

At Millennium's End Kevin Alexander Boon, 2001-03-22 When I look back at my incredibly lucky career as a writer it seems that there was never time to think It was as though I were skiing down a steep and hazardous mountain slope When I look back at the marks my skis made in the snow on the way down I only now realize that I wrote again and again about people who behaved decently in an indecent society From the Foreword by Kurt Vonnegut At Millennium's End looks back over the body of Kurt Vonnegut's writing examining the novels essays and short stories of one of the century's most beloved and widely read authors and social critics It also looks forward projecting Vonnegut's relevance to the next millennium The essays by noted Vonnegut scholars and personal friends are each written from the perspective of someone familiar with Vonnegut's entire canon (The novels of captain Marryat, ed. by R.B. Johnson). Frederick Marryat, 1896 Standard Novels, 1838 The Worlding of the South African Novel Jane Poyner, 2020-08-20 The Worlding of the South African Novel develops from something of a paradox that despite momentous political transition from apartheid to democracy little in South Africa's socio economic reality has actually changed Poyner discusses how the contemporary South African novel engages with this reality In forms of literary experiment the novels open up intellectual spaces shaping or contesting the idea of the new South Africa The mediatizing of truth at the TRC hearings how best to deal with a spectacular yet covert past the shaping for unimagined communities of an inclusive public sphere HIV AIDS as the preeminent site testing capitalist modernity white anxieties about land reform disease as environmental injustice and the fostering of an enabling restorative cultural memory Poyner argues that through these key nodes of intellectual thought the novels speak to recent debates on world literature to register the shock of an uneven modernity produced by a capitalist world economy The Novels of Captain Marryat Frederick Marryat, 1896 The Greatest Sea Novels and Tales of All Time Jules Verne, James Fenimore Cooper, Edgar Allan Poe, Jeffery Farnol, Randall Parrish, Jack London, Victor Hugo, Joseph Conrad, Herman Melville, Walter Scott, Ralph Henry Barbour, Daniel Defoe, Rudyard Kipling, Frederick Marryat, Rafael Sabatini, Charles Boardman Hawes, L. Frank Baum, R. M. Ballantyne, Tobias Smollett, Thomas Mayne Reid, Henry De Vere Stacpoole, R. L. Stevenson, 2023-11-11 The Greatest Sea Novels and Tales of All Time is a captivating anthology that voyages through the vast and unpredictable literature of nautical adventure This collection is a stormy brew of classic and compelling narratives ranging from intrepid explorations of the high seas to brooding tales of maritime mystery and daring pirate escapades Each piece is a towering testament to the allure and ferocity of the ocean inviting readers into the indelible world of seafaring The collection skillfully weaves together epic journeys moral conflicts and the eternal tussle between man and nature all grounded in the timeless tradition of maritime storytelling The contributing authors represent a diverse and illustrious lineage of literary icons who have shaped our understanding of sea narratives From the meticulous and visionary voyages of Jules Verne to the intense psychological and existential depths explored by Joseph Conrad this anthology showcases the unparalleled breadth of talent that has defined and enriched the genre Spanning centuries from the Romantic escapades championed by the likes of Walter Scott to the grittier realist depictions by figures like Jack London this collection captures the historical and cultural evolution of sea literature offering a multifaceted perspective of life on and beneath the waves For any reader eager to embark on an odyssey across distant horizons this anthology is an unparalleled treasure trove that offers a rare opportunity to encounter a multitude of literary voices in one volume It invites exploration not only for its thrilling adventure and mystery but also for the opportunity to engage with perspectives that illuminate and reflect our collective fascination with the sea By gathering these brilliant minds under the masthead of a single compendium The Greatest Sea Novels and Tales of All Time stands as an educational beacon and a celebration of literary diversity inviting readers into a dialogue as vast and challenging as the ocean itself

Transrealist Fiction Damien Broderick,2000-06-30 Transrealist writing treats immediate perceptions in a fantastic way according to science fiction writer and mathematician Rudy Rucker who originated the term In the expanded sense argued in this book it also intensifies imaginative fiction by writing the fantastic from the standpoint of richly personalized experience Transrealism is also related to slipstream writing another category introduced into studies of speculative fiction to account for texts that seem to follow trajectories mapped by the huge body of science fiction accumulated in the last century while retaining a central interest in traditional literary strategies This book examines a variety of work from the transrealist perspective something that has not been done previously It emphasizes the texts of Philip K Dick and Rucker himself while it additionally engages the texts of such slipstream writers as Kurt Vonnegut J G Ballard and John Barth It places its argument against the antihumanist trend in science fiction and builds comparisons with more traditional varieties of science fiction works Indian Popular Fiction Gitanjali Chawla, Sangeeta Mittal, 2021-10-14 This anthology explores and validate the nuances of Indian popular fiction which has hitherto been hounded by its ubiquitous commercial success It uncovers popular in its socio political and cultural contexts Furthermore it investigates the vitality embedded in theory and praxis of popular forms and their insurrections in mutants and new age oeuvres and looks to examine the symbiotic bonds between the reader and the author as the latter articulates and perpetuates the needs of the former whose demands need continual fulfilment This constant metamorphosis of the popular fueled by neoliberalism and postmodernity along with the shifts in the publishing industry to more democratic reader driven genres is taken up here along with the millennial s fetish for romance humanized mythical retellings and the evergreen whodunnits As its natural soulmates the anthology delves into the interstices of Indian Popular with desi local traditions folk lore community consciousness and nation building Please note This title is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Novels Zoran Živković, 2009

Novel Caren Irr,2013-12-17 Caren Irr's survey of more than 125 novels outlines the dramatic resurgence of the American political novel in the twenty-first century. She explores the writings of Chris Abani, Susan Choi, Edwidge Danticat, Junot Díaz, Dave Eggers, Jeffrey Eugenides, Aleksandar Hemon, Hari Kunzru, Dinaw Mengestu, Norman Rush, Gary Shteyngart, and others as they rethink stories of migration, the Peace Corps, nationalism, and neoliberalism, revolution, and the expatriate experience. Taken together, these innovations define a new literary form: the geopolitical novel. More cosmopolitan and socially critical than domestic realism, the geopolitical novel provides new ways of understanding crucial political concepts to meet the needs of a new century.

Radically Rethinking Copyright in the Arts James Young,2020-06-11 This book radically rethinks the philosophical basis of copyright in the arts. The author reflects on the ontology of art to argue that current copyright laws cannot be justified. The book begins by identifying two problems that result from current copyright laws: 1) creativity is restricted, and 2) they primarily serve the interests of large corporations over those of the artists and general public. Against this background, the author presents an account of the ontology of artworks and explains what metaphysics can tell us about ownership in the arts. Next, he makes a moral argument that copyright terms should be shorter and that corporations should not own copyrights. The remaining chapters tackle questions regarding the appropriation of tokens of artworks, pattern types, and artistic elements. The result is a sweeping reinterpretation of copyright in the arts that rests on sound ontological and moral foundations. Radically Rethinking Copyright in the Arts will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in aesthetics and philosophy of art, metaphysics, philosophy of law, and intellectual property law.
