MILLER, 2017 Miller's Encyclopedia of World Silver Marks Judith Miller, Duncan Campbell, 2018-03-20 Designed as the essential reference tool for appraisers, collectors and dealers of silverware, the Encyclopedia is an indispensable guide for anyone researching silver hallmarks, offering clear and wide-ranging reproductions of thousands of hallmarks from more than 60 countries and regions past and present on every continent. Vetted by an international team of experts, the Encyclopedia thus helps you to identify silver hallmarks quickly, easily and reliably. It also includes brief historical overviews of hallmarking in each country, a description of the hallmarking process and a guide to identifying fake and forged marks. Materializing Colonial Encounters François G. Richard, 2015-09-19 This volume investigates the material production and expression of colonial experiences in Africa. It combines archaeological, historical and ethnographic sources to explore the diverse pathways, practices and projects constructed by Africans in their engagement with the forces of colonial modernity and capitalism. This volume is situated in ongoing debates in archaeological and anthropological approaches to materiality. In this respect, it seeks to target archaeologists interested in the conceptual issues provoked by colonial enfoldments It is also concerned with increasing the visibility of relevant African archaeological literature to scholars of colonialism and imperialism laboring in other fields This book brings together an array of junior and senior scholars whose contributions represent a rich sample of the vibrant archaeological research conducted in Africa today blending conceptual inspiration with robust fieldwork The chapters target a variety of cultural historical and colonial settings They are driven by a plurality of perspectives but they are bound by a shared commitment to postcolonial critical and material culture theories While this book focuses on western and southern Africa the sub regions that boast the deepest traditions of historical archaeological research in the continent attention was also placed on including case studies from traditionally less well represented areas East African and Swahili coasts Madagascar whose material pasts are nevertheless essential to a wider comprehension of variability and comparability of modern colonial conditions Consequently this volume lends a unique wide ranging look at African experiences across the tangle of imperial geographies on the continent with case studies focusing on Anglophone Francophone and Dutch speaking contexts This volume is an exciting opportunity to present this work to wider audiences and foster conversations with a wide community of scholars about the material fashioning of colonial life relations and configurations of power
