In the Know Russell T. Warne, 2020-10-29 Emotional intelligence is an important trait for success at work IQ tests are biased against minorities Every child is gifted Preschool makes children smarter Western understandings of intelligence are inappropriate for other cultures These are some of the statements about intelligence that are common in the media and in popular culture But none of them are true In the Know is a tour of the most common incorrect beliefs about intelligence and IQ Written in a fantastically engaging way each chapter is dedicated to correcting a misconception and explains the real science behind intelligence Controversies related to IQ will wither away in the face of the facts leaving readers with a clear understanding about the truth of intelligence The Guardian Index, 2002 Environmental Advertising in China and the USA Xinghua Li, 2016-05-05 Since the late 1980s green consumerism has been hailed in the West as an efficient solution to environmental problems However Chinese consumers have been slow to warm up to eco friendly products Consumers prefer SUVs to hybrid cars health supplements and snake oil medicines to organic foods and eco fashion is still secluded in high end designer studios These choices contradict the findings of many sustainable lifestyle surveys that claim to register a rising desire for green products among the Chinese This book examines the psycho cultural differences that disrupt the translation of eco friendly appeals to China by analyzing environmental advertising It explores the different notions of green the structures of desire that underlies the advertisements and how they are shaped by ideological cultural and historical differences Rather than arguing the superiority of the American or Chinese version of green consumerism the book interrogates the role of advertising in the global spread of Western ideologies and explores the possibilities for consumers to resist transnational corporate hegemony in the green movement This book fills an important gap in the critical scholarship on green marketing and should be of interest to students and scholars of environment studies green advertising and marketing environmental communication and media studies China studies and environmental sociology ethics and cultural studies Michigan School Moderator, 1891
