The Ordinary Virtues Michael Ignatieff,2017-09-18 During a 3 year 8 nation journey Michael Ignatieff found that while human rights is the language of states and liberal elites the moral language that resonates with most people is that of everyday virtues tolerance forgiveness trust and resilience These ordinary virtues are the moral system of global cities and obscure shantytowns alike

The Muslim quest between integration and provocation in contemporary Canadian writing. A close analysis of Rawi Hage's "Cockroach" Matthias Dickert,2017-03-16 Document from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works Comenius University in Bratislava language English abstract This essay is about Rawi Hage s novel Cockroach which at first sight is according to the Daily Telegraph A tale of murder intrigue and sex from the exuberantly talented Hage However Cockroach embodies more than this negative one sighted approach It is also a novel of migration exile diaspora and being unwanted because of being a foreigner of migrant background and Hage like Rushdie explores the hinterland between fantasy trauma and realism The unnamed narrator of the novel takes the reader by the hand and exposes this immigrant life in a chilly surrounding Chilly because people are cold and chilly because the climate is cold too The fact that Hage as a Lebanese born person uses a Canadian setting as the place of action already hints at two conditions of contemporary Muslim writing in general This refers to the autobiographical basis which many novels have and the use of the city as the background of the narration two presuppositions of Muslim writing since Rushdie and Kureishi Hage in Cockroach explores Montreal and presents it as an alien and hostile topography of menial jobs hidden or open xenophobia a mix of foreigners insect behaviours and class hostilities This narrator an exotic foreigner himself despises the world around him and takes the reader through a nightmare of Canadian reality on the basis of his violent childhood the death of his sister his exile situation and the helplessness of Canada which fails in the person of a court mandated psychiatrist His traumatic past and his inability as a man to protect the female members of his family are also symbols for a failed integration and the personal crisis of the narrator who seeks to find identity and a life at the border of physical and psychological death

Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood

Eric Stollenwerk, 2023-11-01 How can effective and legitimate governance be ensured where state institutions are weak This is a key question for domestic and international politics One answer to this question that has received considerable attention in political science but also among development agencies and international organizations is virtuous circles of governance In such circles effective and legitimate governance are thought to be mutually reinforcing The idea is that more effective governance leads to more legitimacy and more legitimacy to more effectiveness in governance In many parts of the world however state institutions are weak and citizens perceive governance as ineffective and governance actors lack legitimacy This places a large question mark behind the idea of virtuous circles of governance Effective and Legitimate Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood asks How likely are virtuous circles of governance to evolve in areas of limited statehood The central claim of this book is that virtuous circles of governance are possible in areas of limited statehood but more likely to evolve for external and non state actors than for the state The state is often part of the governance problem rather than the solution Based on a new theoretical model for the interplay between effective and legitimate governance the study provides in depth empirical evidence for its argument by drawing on innovative qualitative and quantitative data The case studies of Sub Saharan Africa Nigeria and Afghanistan underline the key argument by considering state external and non state actors The book offers conceptual innovations new empirical evidence and policy recommendations of how to ensure effective and legitimate governance in areas of limited statehood

Islam and Political Violence

Shahram Akbarzadeh, Fethi Mansouri, 2010-06-30 How do we engage with the pressing challenges of xenophobia radicalism and security in the age of the war on terror The widely felt sense of insecurity in the West is shared by Muslims both within and outside Western societies Growing Islamic militancy and resulting increased security measures by Western powers have contributed to a pervasive sense among Muslims of being under attack both physically and culturally Islam and Political Violence brings together the current debate on the uneasy and potentially mutually destructive relationship between the Muslim world and the West and argues we are on a dangerous trajectory strengthening dichotomous notions of the divide between the West and the Muslim world security risk for spreading a divisive ideology that can lead to radicalisation and violence More recently the Government has expressed concerns about their impact on social cohesion entryism and women s rights The key protagonists of non violent Islamist extremism allegedly include groups and individuals associated with the Muslim Brotherhood and Jama at i Islami They have been described as part of the global Muslim Brotherhood but do they constitute a singular phenomenon a social movement This book shows that such groups and individuals do indeed comprise a movement in Britain one dedicated to an Islamic revival It shows how they are networked organisationally bonded through ideological and cultural kinship and united in a conflict of values with the British society and state Using original interviews with prominent revivalist leaders as well as primary sources the book also shows how the movement is not so much Islamist in aspiring for an Islamic state but concerned with institutionalising an Islamic worldview and moral framework throughout society The conflict between the Government and the global Muslim Brotherhood is apparent in a number of different fields including education governance law and counterterrorism But this does not simply concern the direction of Government policy or the control of state institutions It most fundamentally concerns the symbolic authority to legitimise a way of seeing thinking and living By assessing this multifaceted conflict the book presents an exhaustive and up to date analysis of the political and cultural fault lines between Islamic revivalists and the British authorities It will be useful for anyone studying Islam in the West government counter terrorism and counter extremism policy multiculturalism and social cohesion

The Muslim World

After 9/11 Angel Rabasa,Matthew Waxman,Eric V. Larson,Cheryl Y. Marcum,2004-11-17 Momentous events since September 11 2001 Operation Enduring Freedom the global war on terrorism and the war in Iraq have dramatically altered the political environment of the Muslim world Many of the forces influencing this environment however are the products of trends that have been at work for many decades This book examines the major dynamics that drive changes in the religious political landscape of the Muslim world a vast and diverse region that stretches from Western Africa through the Middle East to the Southern Philippines and includes Muslim communities and diasporas throughout the world and draws the implications of these trends for global security and U S and Western interests It presents a typology of ideological tendencies in the different regions of the Muslim world and identifies the factors that produce religious extremism and violence It assesses key cleavages along sectarian ethnic regional and national lines and examines how those cleavages generate challenges and opportunities for the United States Finally the authors identify possible strategies and political and military options for the United States to pursue in response to changing conditions in this critical and volatile part of the world

Governance in the Middle East and North Africa Abbas Kadhim,2013-02-15 Governance in the Middle East is topic of interest to scholars activists and policy makers The currently proposed book is intended to present the first comprehensive framework of the question of governance in the Middle East in its various forms and manifestations political economic and government performance

Intercultural Relations and Religious Authorities W. A. R. Shadid,P. Sj. van Koningsveld,2002

The permanent presence of Islam and Muslims in the countries of the European Union implies many different forms of intercultural relations at different levels of society as for instance between Muslims and other religious or philosophical groups within the framework of social and health care in city life and within the sector of education Furthermore the relations between Muslim religious authorities and society at large may be seen as forms of intercultural relations All these types of intercultural relations are influenced by the images fostered by various groups and individuals about the Others The chapters comprising of this volume each contribute to the elucidation of some aspects of these processes of intercultural relations They have been grouped into four main categories the image formation about Islam and Muslims and its impact on their position in the countries of the European Union especially in the press in schoolbooks and in local politics the intercultural relations between Muslims and other groups and institutions in the countries concerned as stereotypes and prejudices can exercise a detrimental effect upon intercultural relations within many different sectors of society religion and education and especially the Islamic Religious Education as well as the religiousness of Muslim and non Muslim pupils the religious authorities of the Muslim communities in the countries of the European Union and their contribution to the formation of a European Islam In this context special attention is paid to the role Muslim religious authorities play in the discussions concerning political participation by Muslims in the West

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 Preti Taneja, 2009-07-16 Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world Nelson Mandela Education for all is a goal that has been reaffirmed by states the world over many times in the last decade It is meant to be achieved by 2015 But as this book clearly shows a quality education is not reaching the world s most vulnerable communities minorities and indigenous peoples In Central Africa the great majority of indigenous Batwa and Baka have not had access even to primary education In South Asia Dalit girls are prevented from pursuing their education not just because of poverty but through discrimination and sexual violence In many countries in Europe Roma children continue to be placed in segregated classes or in special schools for those with learning disabilities just because of their ethnicity In Latin America millions of indigenous and African descendant children instead of being in school work in fields and plantations in the mines or at home In a unique collaboration with UNICEF Minority Rights Group International reports on what minority and indigenous children around the world face in their struggle to learn State of the World s Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2009 profiles the programmes that are being developed to help them from better bilingual education to meeting the needs of nomadic populations giving examples of what works and why It describes efforts to overcome exclusion so that education is available accessible acceptable and adaptable for minorities and indigenous peoples and shows how far there is still to go It includes An analysis of available statistics that show that minorities and indigenous peoples are the most likely to suffer discrimination and exclusion in education worldwide First hand accounts of the difficulties and challenges facing minority and indigenous children in every major world region Coverage of the key issues for promoting the right to education including overcoming the double discrimination faced by minority and indigenous girls the need to collect data by ethnicity and the importance of bilingual or plurilingual education A unique statistical analysis and ranking of Peoples under Threat 2009 State of the World s Minorities and Indigenous Peoples is an invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the conditions facing minorities and indigenous peoples around the world
