2012 Fantasy Football Draft Guide by The Fantasy Fix, The Savvy Guide to Fantasy Football Michael Harmon,2006 A Book of Harmon's wisdom fantasy football theory and statistics Build a Bonfire Paul Hodson,Stephen North,2011-11-04 How would you feel if your football club was bought by a businessman who saw your ground as real estate And what if your ground was demolished leaving you with nowhere to play next season Many fans believe that when Bill Archer a Blackburn based entrepreneur bought Brighton and Hove Albion he had no passion for the club or the game but rather saw an opportunity to make a profit If so he made the fatal mistake of misjudging football fans In July 1995 Brighton's local daily paper led its front page with the headline Seagulls Migrate announcing that the Goldstone Ground was to be sold to a property developer for 7.4 million and that home games were to be played at Portsmouth. All this without one word of consultation with the fans. What followed was the biggest campaign in the history of football to save a club. Drawing on dozens of interviews with people directly involved: the fans, the FA, the players and the management, Build a Bonfire dramatically traces the progress of the two-year fight with the board, two years of despair, absurdity and solidarity. In so doing, the book not only explores implications for other clubs in a world where the battle lines between football and money are being drawn ever tighter, but also creates a picture of that strange and wonderful thing, the football fan. And having lived through the crisis and listened to the fans, the authors can offer their Ten Essential Steps to Depose your Club Chairman should the need arise.
