Murder Madness Murray Leinster,1931 Murder, Madness & Love Yolanda Renee,2013 Murder and Mayhem Michelle Ghaffari,1995 Madness and Murder Jen Hilborne,2010-09 Of Murder and Madness Gerry Spence,1983

A KILLER WITHOUT REDEMPTION In broad daylight in the backwater of Rawlins Wyoming Joe Esquibel shot his wife right between the eyes in front of eight witnesses including his own children and a deputy sheriff with his gun drawn It seemed an indefensible case of premeditated murder by a remorseless killer A crime that cried out for the death penalty A LAWYER WHO WOULDN T GIVE UP Enter Gerry Spence the controversial nationally renowned defense lawyer who d never lost a case Undeterred by the odds against him and armed with awesome powers of persuasion he turned the trial into an electrifying legal battle to save a man from execution For seven years through three trials he fought with everything he had until incredibly he achieved the impossible Esquibel was acquitted by reason of insanity OF MURDER AND MADNESS With riveting detail Gerry Spence takes you behind the scenes of an unforgettable true life courtroom drama and inside the mind of a murderer It is a fascinating unvarnished look at the wheelings and dealings that go on in the courtroom and a chilling odyssey into the darkness of the human soul

Murder, Madness and Marriage Kate Kray,Ronald Kray,Mandy Bruce,1993 Psychology of Fear, Crime and the Media Derek Chadee,2015-12-07 The media continue to have a significant persuasive influence on the public perception of crime even when the information presented is not reflective of the crime rate or actual crime itself There have been numerous theoretical studies on fear of crime in the media but few have considered this from a social psychological perspective As new media outlets emerge and public dependence on them increases the need for such awareness has never been greater This volume lays the foundation for understanding fear of crime from a social psychological perspective in a way that has not yet been systematically presented to the academic world This volume brings together an international team of experts and scholars to assess the role of fear and the media in everyday life Chapters take a multidisciplinary approach to psychology sociology and criminology and explore such topics as dual process theory construal level theory public fascination with gangs and other contemporary issues

Arguments and Decisions, in Remarkable Cases Lord John Maclaurin Dreghorn,Scotland. High Court of Justiciary,1774 Modern Murders Lee Michael-Berger,2023-05-03 Modern Murders is the first comprehensive study of murder representations during the turn of the century drawing on previously neglected

archival material to explore the intellectual cultural and artistic contexts of the period Most studies view the abundance of murder representations throughout the nineteenth century as an indicator of a supposedly typical Victorian appetite for sensation and melodrama Modern Murders however demonstrates the turn of the century s backlash against melodramatic and sensational representations of murder and reads them as an important component in the struggles for better aesthetic standards in art and entertainment and as a dominant feature in the debates on mass culture Through a plethora of visual and written texts representations of fictional and actual real life murders and high and popular forms of writing the volume considers the importance of murder in the elite claim to cultural authority versus its perception of plebian taste in the context of the democratization of culture This book will be of value to scholars and graduate students in a variety of research areas as well as general readers interested in the role of murder as a central trope in modern art and culture
