

A Mystery Game The Mystery in Cardiff

Tony Malkovich has a seemingly perfect life working as a detective in the city. However, when a painting goes missing from the local museum, he begins to realize that things are not quite as they seem in the town of Cardiff. The idyllic seaside town holds a secret.

A recent argument among a few individuals, leaves Tony with some startling questions about the town of Cardiff and the mystery of the missing painting. At first, the people of Cardiff are patient and caring. They want to help Tony solve the mystery, but once Tony starts digging deeper, he can tell that the people of Cardiff are trying to stop his investigation. Who is involved? Why don't they want the mystery solved? Tony Malkovich didn't know what he was in for.

It will be your job to find out who stole the painting. We are counting on you! Listen to your teacher for directions on how you will solve this mystery. Keep track of your clues on the graphic organizer provided. Some clues can be misleading or a red herring. Look at each clue carefully to help you decide! Good luck detectives!

Certainty and Ambiguity in Global Mystery Fiction John J. Han,C. Clark Triplett,Matthew Bardowell,2024-02-08 Mystery fiction as a genre renders moral judgments not only about detectives and criminals but also concerning the cultural structures within which these mysteries unfold In contrast to other volumes which examine morality in crime fiction through the lenses of personal guilt and personal justice Certainty and Ambiguity in Global Mystery Fiction analyzes the effect of moral imagination on the moral structures implicit in the genre In recent years public awareness has attended to the relationship between social structures and justice and this collection centers on how personal ethics and social ethics are bound together amidst the shifting moral landscapes of mystery fiction Contributors discuss the interplay between personal guilt and social guilt considering morality and justice on an individual level and at a societal level using frameworks of certainty and ambiguity They show how individual characters in works by Agatha Christie Gabriel Garcia Marquez Natsuo Kirino F. H. Batacan and Stephen King among others may view their moral standing with certainty but clash with the established mores of their culture Featuring essays on Japanese Filipino Indian and Colombian mystery fiction as well as American and British fiction this volume analyzes social guilt and justice across cultures showing how individuals grapple with the certainty and at times the moral ambiguity of their respective cultures
