Museums In China Power Politics And Identities:

Museums in China Tracey Lu, 2013-11-20 From the earliest museums established by Western missionaries in order to implement religious and political power to the role they have played in the formation of the modern Chinese state the origin and development of museums in mainland China differ significantly from those in the West The occurrence of museums in mainland China in the late nineteenth century was primarily a result of internal and external conflicts Westernization and colonialism and as such they were never established solely for enjoyment and leisure Using a historical and anthropological framework this book provides a holistic and critical review on the establishment and development of museums in mainland China from 1840 to the present day and shows how museums in China have been used by a wide range of social political and state actors for a number of economic religious political and ideological purposes Indeed Tracey L D Lu examines the key role played by museums in reinforcing social segmentation influencing the economy protecting cultural heritage and the construction and enhancement of ethnic identities and nationalism and how they have throughout their history helped the powerful to govern the less powerful or the powerless More broadly this book provides important comparative insights on museology and heritage management and questions who the key stakeholders are how museums reflect broader social and cultural changes and the relationship between museum and heritage management Drawing on extensive archival research and anthropological fieldwork as well as the author's experience working as a museum curator in mainland China in the late 1980s Museums in China such will be of great interest to students and scholars working across museology heritage studies tourism studies Chinese culture and Chinese history

Museums in China Tracey Lie Dan Lu, 2015-07-31 This book provides a holistic and critical review on the establishment and development of museums in mainland China from 1840 to the present day and shows how museums in China have been used by a wide range of social political and state actors for a number of economic religious political and ideological purposes More broadly this book provides important comparative insights on museology and heritage management and questions who the key stakeholders are how museums reflect broader social and cultural changes and the relationship between museum and heritage management

Museum Processes in China Chui-fun Selina Ho, 2025-10-01 This book challenges the museum enterprise in China as a state monopoly and considers it as a new cultural agency that has emerged in the early twenty first century Following a constructive and multi perspectival approach it discusses the roles of political and cultural economic agents museum intermediaries and museum publics in the interlinked processes of regulation cultural production and consumption and the issues of identity and representation faced by the art museums in the Greater Pearl River Delta Region It broadly traces the art museum from its origin as a tool of nationalism and adoption as a vehicle of modernization in both nationalist and early communist periods until its role in the present as it reflects the contested and alternative representations diverse publics and fissured identities of the post economic reform period of China

Museums, Collections and Social Repair in Vietnam Graeme

Were,2022-08-29 Museums Collections and Social Repair in Vietnam analyses the relationship between museums collections and social repair in contemporary Vietnam Drawing on fieldwork in a range of museums in the country alongside interviews with museum workers and stakeholders and analyses of museum exhibitions the book explores how museums help ordinary people overcome loss suffered during conflict Focusing on key objects in museum collections that elicit strong emotions or feelings Graeme Were examines their relationship to social repair and transformation in order to understand what mobilises survivors families and communities to recover and re evaluate memory and give prominence to grievances and loss or future hopes and aspirations Arguing that nationalist frameworks no longer adequately account for the diverse agendas of Vietnamese museums this book brings into question the dynamics between history and memory the capacity of the museum to repair injury loss or suffering and the limits of historical memory beyond the control of a one party state Museums Collections and Social Repair in Vietnam analyses the role of museums in transforming lives and creating a just future It will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums heritage Asia tourism and anthropology The Heritage Turn in China Carol Ludwig,Linda Walton,Yi-Wen Wang,2025-10-01 The Heritage Turn in China The Reinvention Dissemination and Consumption of Heritage focuses on heritage discourse and practice in China today as it has evolved from the heritage turn that can be dated to the 1990s Using a variety of disciplinary approaches to regionally and topically diverse case studies the contributors to this edited volume show how particular versions of the past are selected re invented disseminated and consumed for contemporary purposes These studies explore how the Chinese state utilises heritage not only for tourism entertainment educational and commercial purposes but also as part of broader political strategies on both the national and international stage Together they argue that the Chinese state deploys modes of heritage governance to construct new modernities while strengthening collective national identity in support of both its political legitimacy and its claim to status as an international superpower The authors also consider ways in which state management of heritage is contested by some stakeholders whose embrace of heritage has a different purpose and meaning The Art of

Remembering Yat Ming Loo,Hua Li,Jing Xie,Eugenio Mangi,2024-05-31 Focusing on the non Western context and case studies this book explores theories of interdisciplinary architectural thinking and the construction of urban memory in Chinese cities with an emphasis on contemporary architecture and the diversity of agencies China has undergone one of the fastest urbanisation and urban renewal processes in human history but discussions of urban memory in China have tended to be practice oriented and lack theoretical reflection This book brings together interdisciplinary architectural scholarship to interrogate the production of urban memory and examine experiences in China The 14 chapters explore different processes projects materials architecture and urban spaces in different Chinese cities by analysing cityscapes such as temples bridges conservation projects architectural design historical architecture memorial hall market street city images custom bike food market and so on The book deals with different agencies and methods tangible and intangible in the construction of memories aimed at promoting hybridised multiple identities and explores the interplay of different versions of memory i e state public regional local individual and collective memory This book will be essential reading for scholars and students of architecture and urbanism cultural studies and China studies as well as architects urban planners and historians interested in these fields Staging Indigenous Heritage Yunci Cai,2020-08-12 Staging Indigenous Heritage examines the cultural politics of four Indigenous cultural villages in Malaysia Demonstrating that such villages are often beset with the politics of brokerage and representation the book shows that this reinforces a culture of dependency on the brokers By critically examining the relationship between Indigenous tourism and development through the establishment of Indigenous cultural villages the book addresses the complexities of adopting the culture for development paradigm as a developmental strategy Demonstrating that the opportunities for self representation and self determination can become entwined with the politics of brokerage and the contradictory dualism of culture it becomes clear that this can both facilitate and compromise their intended outcomes Challenging the simplistic conceptualisation of Indigenous communities as harmonious and unified wholes the book shows how Indigenous cultures are actively forged struggled over and negotiated in contemporary Malaysia Confronting the largely positive rhetoric in current discourses on the benefits of community based cultural projects Staging Indigenous Heritage should be essential reading for academics and students in the fields of museum studies cultural heritage studies Indigenous studies development studies tourism anthropology and geography The book should also be of interest to museum and heritage professionals around the world The Role of Today's Museum Clive Gray,Vikki McCall,2020-04-07 The Role of Today s Museum provides a thorough investigation of what museums do and why Arguing that museums are multifunctional institutions the book examines the consequences of this for the services that museums provide the publics to whom they are provided and the providers themselves Adopting a wide perspective on understandings of the roles of museums and considering the different environments within which museums operate Gray and McCall provide a new perspective on how transformations as well as the gaps between intended policies and the actual work that is undertaken within museums can be both identified and understood By differentiating between social economic and political visions and expectations of museums the analysis in this book allows for a fuller understanding of what these organisations do and provide for their societies and the struggles and negotiations that surround their existence The Role of Today s Museum takes a critical interdisciplinary approach to studying museums and museum policy As a result the book will be of interest to academics and students engaged in the study of museums cultural policy social policy cultural sociology public policy and cultural and political economy Highlighting the gaps that exist between policy ideals and museum practices the book also provides valuable insights to policy makers and practitioners Bulletin ,2021 CSA Political Science & Government ,2005 Dance, Identity and Integration Janice D.
