No Documents, No Escape Christophe Levaux, 2020-09-01 Rising out of the American art music movement of the late 1950s and 1960s minimalism shook the foundations of the traditional constructs of classical music becoming one of the most important and influential trends of the twentieth century The emergence of minimalism sparked an active writing culture around the controversies philosophies and forms represented in the music s style and performance and its defenders faced a relentless struggle within the music establishment and beyond Focusing on how facts about music are constructed negotiated and continually remodeled We Have Always Been Minimalist retraces the story of these battles that from pure fiction to proven truth led to the triumph of minimalism Christophe Levaux's critical analysis of literature surrounding the origins and transformations of the stylistic movement offers radical insights and a unique new history

Mabel Daniels:
An American Composer in Transition Maryann McCabe, 2017-10-05 Mabel Daniels 1877-1971 An American Composer in Transition assesses Daniels within the context of American music of the first half of the twentieth century Daniels wrote fresh sounding works that were performed by renowned orchestras and ensembles during her lifetime but her works have only recently begun to be performed again The book explains why works by Daniels and other women composers fell out of favor and argues for their performance today This study of Daniels's life and works evinces transition in women's roles in composition the professionalization of women composers and the role that Daniels played in the institutionalization of American art music Daniels's dual role as a patron composer is unique and expressive of her transitional status
