McPherson,2015-09-24 The new edition of The Child as Musician A Handbook of Musical Development celebrates the richness and diversity of the many different ways in which children can engage in and interact with music It presents theory both cutting edge and classic in an accessible way for readers by surveying research concerned with the development and acquisition of musical skills The focus is on musical development from conception to late adolescences although the bulk of the coverage concentrates on the period when children are able to begin formal music instruction from around age 3 until the final year of formal schooling around age 18 There are many conceptions of how musical development might take place just as there are for other disciplines and areas of human potential Consequently the publication highlights the diversity in current literature dealing with how we think about and conceptualise children s musical development Each of the authors has searched for a better and more effective way to explain in their own words and according to their own perspective the remarkable ways in which children engage with music In the field of educational psychology there are a number of publications that survey the issues surrounding child and adolescent development Some of the more innovative present research and theories and their educational implications in a style that stresses the fundamental interplay among the biological environmental social and cultural influences at each stage of a child s development Until now no similar overview has existed for child and adolescent development in the field of music The Child as Musician addresses this imbalance and is essential for those in the fields of child development music education and music cognition Musical Lives of Young Children John W. Flohr,2005 This book uses an innovative approach to music for young children using research findings to determine and substantiate good practice and emphasizing the belief that the nurturing of children s musical interest is of great import to their development and emotional lives This comprehensive overview of music for young children demonstrates that the more a teacher knows and understands young children they better they will be able to judge what is best for their group Some topics covered are foundations of music learning planning the environment singing creating moving playing reading and writing and listening It is designed to be valuable to parents music teachers early childhood and elementary teachers Musical Growth in the Elementary School Bjornar Bergethon,Eunice Boardman,Janet

Montgomery,1997 Music in Early Childhood: Multi-disciplinary Perspectives and Inter-disciplinary Exchanges Susan Young,Beatriz Ilari,2019-07-17 This book examines four main areas of music in early childhood the traditions of music for young children their capacities for music the way they make music with others and constructed and mediated musical childhoods It studies several themes in detail including music making in the home and family life various musical experiences in schools day cares and the community at large in several locations around the globe It looks at technology and diverse musical repertoires as well as innovative pedagogies children s agency and brain research Expanding on the knowledge bases on which early childhood music education typically draws the book brings together contributions from a range of authors from diverse fields such as education psychology sociology cultural studies anthropology philosophy ethnomusicology and the neurosciences The end result is a volume that offers a broad and contemporary picture of music in early childhood

Journal of Education and School World ,1887 Journal of Education ,1894 Music Learning and Teaching in Infancy, Childhood, and Adolescence Gary McPherson, Graham Welch, 2018-04-26 Music Learning and Teaching in Infancy Childhood and Adolescence is one of five paperback books derived from the foundational two volume Oxford Handbook of Music Education Designed for music teachers students and scholars of music education as well as educational administrators and policy makers the second book in this set explores a broad array of key issues concepts and debates related to music learning and teaching in three phases of a child s development The first section provides an expanded view of infancy and early childhood embracing a key theme that most young children s early music making is improvised and used to communicate with others and the self These chapters demonstrate the importance of motherese or parentese to young children s overall development the extraordinary diversity and richness of children s early musical engagement and how this can be viewed as a resource for further learning The second section is devoted to the learning and teaching of music during the middle years of childhood when music is often a mandated part of the school curriculum While recognizing the enormous cultural and national differences chapters in this section give an overview of many varied and innovative forms of musical learning and teaching globally The authors address issues related to the types of teachers who provide music instructions to children internationally how they were educated and trained and how various nations organize their curriculum in ways that provide children with access and opportunities to engage with music in the classroom The third section focuses on the musical experiences and development of adolescents aged 12 to 18 These chapters explore the role of music in the lives of young people including how they use and relate to music how music educators can best meet students needs and the types of musical engagement that can either empower or disempower students through involvement in school music Contributors Mayumi Adachi Randall Everett Allsup Janet R Barrett Margaret S Barrett Brydie Leigh Bartleet Lily Chen Hafteck Richard Colwell Sharon G Davis George M DeGraffenreid Steven C Dillon Magne I Espeland Martin Fautley Eve Harwood Lee Higgins Beatriz Ilari Neryl Jeanneret Chee Hoo Lum Stephen Malloch Esther Mang Kathryn Marsh Gary E McPherson Oscar Odena Chris Philpott S Alex Ruthmann Eric Shieh Gary Spruce Johannella Tafuri Sandra E Trehub Colwyn Trevarthen Kari K Veblen Graham F Welch Heidi Westerlund Jackie Wiggins Ruth Wright Susan Young
