Muslim Youth Challenges Opportunities And Expectations:

Muslim Youth Mohammed Sidiq Seddon, Fauzia Ahmad, 2011 Many Muslim societies regardless of location are displaying a youth bulge where more than half their populations are under the age of 25 An increasingly globalized western culture is rapidly eroding traditional ideas about society from the family to the state At the same time there is a view that rampant materialism is creating a culture of spiritual emptiness in which demoralization and pessimism easily find root For young Muslims these challenges may be compounded by a growing sense of alienation as they face competing ideologies and divergent lifestyles Muslim youth are often idealized as the future of Islam or stigmatized as rebelling against their parental values and suffering identity crises These experiences can produce both positive and negative reactions from intellectual engagement and increasing spiritual maturity to emotional rejectionism narrow identity politics and violent extremism This book addresses many of the central issues currently facing young Muslims in both localized and globalized contexts through engaging with the work of academics youth work practitioners and those working in non governmental organizations and civic institutions provided by publisher Negotiating Identity and Tradition in Single-faith Religious Education Inkeri Rissanen, 2014 What kinds of process of negotiation are involved in teaching and studying Islam in a modern liberal context How can the common aims attached to liberal religious education in contemporary European multicultural societies be pursued in single faith education This book contributes to the search for legitimate and successful forms of religious education by presenting results from a case study examining Islamic education in Finnish schools Finnish Islamic education in which students study their own religion with aims drawn from the liberal educational paradigm offers a space for negotiating liberal educational values in an Islamic framework and negotiating Islam in its many contexts The findings demonstrate the possibilities as well as challenges in educating for autonomy tolerance and citizenship through religion The book also gives insights into students negotiations on diversity and tolerance that are important for all involved in any form of multicultural education These negotiations bring out distinct challenges in dealing with interreligious intrareligious and cultural differences and demonstrate how different understandings of tolerance in different ideological frameworks can cause confusion among students The results lead to a discussion of the educational needs of Muslim students in contemporary Western societies and the competencies their teachers need Young Muslims, Pedagogy and Islam Khan, M.G., 2013-02-27 Written by a leading practitioner and academic in the field of youth and community work this multidisciplinary book approaches the lives of Muslim young people from theoretical social and theological viewpoints M G Khan moves beyond notions of gendered provision and confessional activity to ask what defines a Muslim pedagogy He presents a theoretical frame for Muslim youth work that is accessible to informal educators and Muslims alike providing insight and analysis of nuances that are only possible from on the ground engagement German: (The Power of Education) Jeremy Henzell-Thomas, 2018-09-01 Knowledge is Power a statement commonly attributed to an eminent English philosopher and scientist in 1597 still highlights today the importance of knowledge in the modern world Education forms the basis of our knowledge and its development from our earliest experiences at school through to Higher Education Individuals use their knowledge in their professional and personal lives and society as a collective of individuals shapes the world in which we live Therefore the power of education is one of the keys to developing a successful society and benefits humanity at large But things have gone very wrong Society values and morals are all in decline How has education lost its power to build an effective and fair society How can this decline be reversed In The Power of Education the author goes back to first principles and asks what is education and what do individuals and society need from education Reconnecting education with the heart and soul of humanity and finding that great purpose of mankind is paramount This is distinct from a knowledge factory that merely develops individuals for material advancement and personal progression Values morals compassion empathy gratitude mutual respect fairness and social responsibility are all essential traits for individuals that collectively form a successful society and these traits need to be instilled during the entire educational experience By rethinking and developing an effective education methodology one can work towards building a better world based upon equality and fairness for all

Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid, 2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within youth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK

Sexuality Education from an Islamic Perspective G. Hussein Rassool, Muhammad Aftab Khan, Shaikh Abdul Mabud, Muhammad Ahsan, 2020-02-13 We live in an over sexualised culture where sex and sexuality have become part of the public domain This sexual revolution challenges Judeo Christian and Islamic norms and boundaries As such sexuality education is a sensitive and extremely important issue and its current implementation in schools has raised public concerns This book explores the subject contextualising it within the matrix of Islamic beliefs and practices Islam binds sexuality and sexual education to a moral grid with rights and obligations justice and equity There is a dominant discourse and stereotype around Islamic sexuality which presents sex and sexuality as the biggest taboo fraught with fear and seldom discussed This book dispels such myths and misconceptions providing an overview of sexuality education in the modern world and the need for such education
