Davis, 2014-04-07 Introduced at the opening of the New York World's Fair in April 1964 the Ford Mustang was based on mechanicals from the earlier Ford Falcon compact car It quickly established a new motorcar category the pony car which was widely copied by domestic and overseas competitors From the outset the Mustang represented inspired product planning and design followed by brilliantly executed marketing Ford's Mustang team effort used every tool in the vehicle marketing toolbox clever teasers long before the new product went on sale unprecedented publicity simple but effective advertising the stage at the World's Fair movie placement distribution of toy plastic models and even a replica pedal car for the young drivers of the future With a measure of luck it became a classic case of releasing the right product at the right time and Ford sold one million units in less than two years Selling the American Muscle Car

Diego Rosenberg, 2016-10-14 As the muscle car wars developed in the early 1960s auto manufacturers scrambled to find catchy marketing campaigns to entice the buying public into their dealerships General Motors Ford and Chrysler with all their divisions as well as AMC and Studebaker inevitably sank billions of dollars into one upmanship in an effort to vie for the consumer's last dollar Automotive writer Diego Rosenberg examines the tactics and components used by manufacturers in waging war against one another in the muscle car era Manufacturers poured millions into racing programs operating under the principle of Win on Sunday Sell on Monday Cars were given catchy nicknames such as The GTO Judge Plymouth Roadrunner Cobra and Dodge Super Bee Entire manufacturer lines were given catchy marketing campaigns such as Dodge's Scat Pack AMC's Go Package and Ford's Total Performance From racing to commercials to print ads from dealer showrooms to national auto shows each manufacturer had its own approach in vying for the buyer's attention and gimmicks and tactics ranged from comical to dead serious Selling the American Muscle Car Marketing Detroit Iron in the 60s and 70s takes you back to an era when options were plentiful and performance was cheap You will relive or be introduced to some of the cleverest marketing campaigns created during a time when America was changing every day Collecting Muscle Car Model Kits

Tim Boyd, 2018-05-15 In the 1960s model kit building was a huge hobby Kids built plastic kits of planes tanks race cars space ships creatures from scary movies you name it Before baseball card collecting Pok mon and video games model kit building was one of the most popular hobby activities Car and airplane kits were the most popular and among the car kits muscle cars as we know them today were one of the most popular categories Many owners of real muscle cars today were not old enough to buy them when the cars were new of course Yet kids of the 1960s and 1970s worshiped these cars to an extent completely foreign to kids today If you couldn't afford or were too young to buy a muscle car back then what could you do For many the next best thing was to buy collect and build muscle car kits from a variety of kit companies Hundreds were made Many of these kits have become collectible today especially in original unassembled form Although people still build kits today there is a broad market for collectors of nostalgic model kits People love the kits for the great box art to rekindle fond memories of building them 40 years ago or even as a companion to the full scale cars they own today Here world leading authority Tim Boyd takes you through the entire era of muscle car kits covering the options collectability variety availability and value of these wonderful kits today Boyd also takes you through the differences between the original kits the older reproduction kits and the new reproduction kits that many people find at swap meets today If you are looking to build a collection of muscle car kits interested in getting the kits of your favorite manufacturer or even just of the cars you have owned this book will be a valuable resource in your model kit search Women Behind the Wheel Nancy A.
