2025 03 full list of book titles as of 2025 html Finding Sophie Imran Mahmood, 2025-03-04 Two parents conduct an increasingly desperate search for their missing daughter in a clever chilling thriller that is also unexpectedly moving Shari Lapena New York Times bestselling author of Everyone Here Is Lying Imran Mahmood is the only author writing about a missing person who deals with grief this well I loved it Gillian McAllister New York Times bestselling author of Wrong Place Wrong Time Someone is guilty For the last seventeen years Harry and Zara King's lives have revolved around their only daughter Sophie One day Sophie leaves the house and doesn't come home Six weeks later the police are no closer to finding her than when they started Harry and Zara have questioned everyone who has ever had any connection to Sophie to no avail Except there's one house on their block number 210 across the street whose occupant refuses to break his silence Someone knows what happened As the question mark over number 210 devolves into obsession Harry and Zara are forced to examine their own lives They realize they have grown apart suffering in separate spheres of grief And as they try to find their way back to each other they must face the truth about their daughter who she was how she changed and why she disappeared Someone will pay Told in the alternating perspectives of Harry and Zara and in a dual timeline between the weeks after Sophie's disappearance and a year later in the middle of a murder trial Imran Mahmood's taut yet profoundly moving novel explores how differently grief can be experienced even when shared by parents and how hope triumphs when it springs from the kind of love that knows no bounds Unseaming Mike Allen, 2014-10-07 NOW WITH NEW BONUS CONTENT 2014 Shirley Jackson Award finalist for best collection 2014 This Is Horror Award finalist for best collection 2015 Chesley Award finalist for best cover Mike Allen has put together a first class collection of horror and dark fantasy Unseaming burns bright as hell among its peers Laird Barron author of The Beautiful Thing That Awaits Us All Allen's stories deliver solid shivering terror tinged with melancholy sorrow over the fragility of humankind Publishers Weekly starred review The stories range from the sly to the splatteringly horrific with every nuance of dread and menace in between Library Journal starred review Everyone in the world awakens covered in blood and no one knows where the blood came from A childhood doll arrives to tear its owner's reality limb from limb A portal to the spirit realm stretches wide on the Appalachian Trail and something more than human crawls through on eight legs Words of comfort change to terrifying sounds as a force from outside time speaks through them The buttons in the bin will unseam your flesh to bare your nastiest secrets Opening with The Button Bin a finalist for the Nebula Award for Best Short Story and culminating with its sequel The Quiltmaker which Bram Stoker Award and Shirley Jackson Award winner Laird Barron has hailed as Mike Allen's masterpiece this debut collection gathers fourteen horror tales that in the words of Barron's introduction rival anything committed to paper by the likes of contemporary masters such as Clive Barker Ramsey Campbell or Caitlín Kiernan This is raw visceral and sometimes bloody stuff Primal stuff More praise for Unseaming Throughout Unseaming reality is usually in bad shape right from the start and from there things proceed to go downhill Such is the general background and trajectory of life in Mike Allen's fictional world

More could be said of course but there's one thing that I feel especially urged to say these stories are fun Not good fun and certainly not good clean fun They are too unnerving for those modifiers too serious like laughter in the dark unnerving serious laughter that leads you through Mr Allen's funhouse The reality in there is also in bad shape deliberately so just for the seriously unnerving fun of it The prose is poetic except it's nonsense poetry the poetry of deteriorating realities intermingling realities realities without Reality And all the while that unnerving serious laughter keeps getting louder and louder Are we having fun yet Thomas Ligotti author of Teatro Grottesco and The Spectral Link Allen can write as lyrically and as viscerally as the best of them an exceptional debut collection Locus Mike Allen's Unseaming confirms his status as a poet who writes in dread and awe rather than ink His most recurrent themes are those of wrenching loss and transformative retribution with a liberal helping of the literal fear of God's sowing out a hundred different apocalypses personal and otherwise these stories reap an unforgettable crop of nightmares sketching a chimeric universe in which shape changing is less a rumour or an option than a sad simple inevitability Not to be missed Gemma Files author of We Will All Go Down Together Mike Allen blends a poet's attention to language with a crime reporter's instinct for the darker precincts of human behavior These stories glow with demonic energy and what they illuminate are the faces of our secret selves screaming back at us from the mirror's depths John Langan author of The Wide Carnivorous Sky and Other Monstrous Geographies Offbeat gruesome conceits and expert delivery Asimov's Science Fiction One of the most original practitioners of the body horror subgenre since Clive Barker's Books of Blood Rue Morgue
