My Cat Wants Me Dead:

Run with the Devil or Walk with God Manjuan De La Pas, 2014-11-14 This autobiography is about a character's transition from a curious child to an evil adolescent into a highly self secure spiritual man. As a child he loves and is very close to his grandmother whom although poor she's always happy very spiritual and the only real example of anyone being close to God. He loves to sit down with her and listen curiously as she describes the beauty of heaven as well as reads and explains the at times grim prophecies of the bible. Still too young to understand he would remain a confused and bitter unbeliever due to all the pain and suffering that surrounded him on a daily basis. He's a child growing up in a very tough racially divided community who never looks for trouble but trouble always finds him. At first he could care less and isn't impressed by the hoods in the fast life. But on the surface compared to his mother and any hard working individual it was the hoods that had it all. So by the time he'd become an adolescent he's tired of being poor any good he had left in him has faded and he vows to do whatever it takes to get ahead even if he has to kill. In the process he prays to the devil, makes an abundance of money, gains power and attains an unbelievable amount of notoriety. He'd become almost uncontrollable to the point where he's very aware but doesn't care that he only has two stops left: life in prison or eternal death in hell. Until one fateful day when he's made to think about his only son after a crime he'd committed that could have hurt or even killed an enemy's innocent kids and thus began his road to repentance.

Death and Other Lovers Jo Bannister, 2012-11-01 Meet Mickey Flynn. He's an American by birth, a Londoner by choice, a photo journalist by trade. Mickey's sitting pretty until a fire nearly destroys his home and the woman he loves. According to his girlfriend two men, Middle Eastern in appearance, broke into the flat, terrorized her, then made their way into the darkroom which then exploded. Mickey doesn't doubt that this is a case of premeditated arson. And no wonder. For the past seven years Flynn's camera has relentlessly exposed the corrupt and the unscrupulous. It's a talent that has made him tops in his field and made him plenty of enemies too, such as Tomas Obregon, a drug kingpin who is as urbane and charming as he is deadly. Peter Loriston, a politician of dubious morality, and Michael Wylie, a cynical soldier for hire. Not to mention Jamil Fahad, a ruthless high ranking officer in the Palestinian hierarchy.
