Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century D.J. Huppertz, 2025-04-03 Covering 2001 to today Designing Retail Experience in the 21st Century presents readers with a critical cross disciplinary perspective on retail design bringing together scholarship from design architecture branding cultural studies and social studies Our retail experience has changed profoundly over the past two decades largely due to the impact of digital technologies While the rise of smartphones and online commerce threatened to displace bricks and mortar stores physical shopping has survived and in some cases thrived

Today the most successful brands design experiences that engage customers both within the physical store and in the digital realm In this book D J Huppertz analyses how corporations design these experiences how we interact with them and how they align with broader social cultural and economic changes Eight case studies reveal how some of the largest global retail chains including Apple Amazon Nike Zara IKEA and LEGO and smaller chains such as Aesop and Gentle Monster utilize design to create engaging experiences Unlike in the past such corporations consider design in a continuum that extends from architecture and interiors to product and service design and from website and digital interactions to social media At the intersection of design and cultural studies this book provides a critical survey and understanding of design and retail experience in the 21st century

The Death of the Artist William Deresiewicz, 2020-07-28 A deeply researched warning about how the digital economy threatens artists lives and work the music writing and visual art that sustain our souls and societies from an award winning essayist and critic There are two stories you hear about earning a living as an artist in the digital age One comes from Silicon Valley There's never been a better time to be an artist it goes If you've got a laptop you've got a recording studio If you've got an iPhone you've got a movie camera And if production is cheap distribution is free it's called the Internet Everyone's an artist just tap your creativity and put your stuff out there The other comes from artists themselves Sure it goes you can put your stuff out there but who's going to pay you for it Everyone is not an artist Making art takes years of dedication and that requires a means of support If things don't change a lot of art will cease to be sustainable So which account is true Since people are still making a living as artists today how are they managing to do it William Deresiewicz a leading critic of the arts and of contemporary culture set out to answer those questions Based on interviews with artists of all kinds The Death of the Artist argues that we are in the midst of an epochal transformation If artists were artisans in the Renaissance bohemians in the nineteenth century and professionals in the twentieth a new paradigm is emerging in the digital age one that is changing our fundamental ideas about the nature of art and the role of the artist in society
