Critical Making in the Age of AI Emily Johnson, Anastasia Salter, 2025-04-15

Critical Making in the Age of AI invites students teachers learners and digital humanists to explore making as scholarship Inspired by the craft traditions of textile arts this book combines a survey of forms of alternative scholarly communication such as comics GIFs maps games and generative AI and a pattern book where patterns serve as starting points that makers can reimagine and remix Firmly grounded in the humanities and utilizing free tools and platforms including Twine Voyant and Tracery wherever possible this engaging and accessible guide to digital methods introduces and puts into practice concepts that are essential to preparing students to navigate a changing landscape of media and information without investing in proprietary software dedicated lab space or expensive creative tools The book's eight patterns are especially appropriate for those just beginning to explore digital scholarly methods and one goal of Critical Making in the Age of AI is to provide structure for work that is both meaningful and achievable with limited resources and time By centering critical making through a design justice and feminist lens the coauthors model how inclusive and expansive approaches to making in research and teaching are vital to shaping the humanities of the future
