

Black Friday

Every year, on the day after Thanksgiving, stores around the country host major Black Friday sales! Have fun exploring the math behind Black Friday.

Receipt Math

Fill in the blanks on the Black Friday market using the information given.

PRICING PROBLEMS

These films are great examples of how the film industry is becoming more inclusive and diverse. It's a good sign that we're moving in the right direction.

No, no, no! This is all wrong! Their beach ball should be $499 less than the sweater, which is supposed to be $600 cheaper than what is marked. The prices are priced way too high! It is only double the price of the sweater's sale price. Harry and the sales ladies are overcharging our customers, come on!

Scheduling Madness

Stores open all the crucial hours on Black Friday. Some even open for their big sale on Thanksgiving. Read the conversations below to figure out when each store opens, and all is the talk with readers from below.

"So looks like we are going to have to start our shopping after our Thanksgiving meal. Our guests are leaving at four pm, right when Old Navy opens, and Toys R Us opens one-hour later!"
 "Okay, but we need to be at Best Buy to get the great deal on that TV on-line later."
 "But what about the cheap tool-set on Target? They open at the same time as Best Buy. We can't be in two places at once!"
 "Yeah, I know that Lowe's has the same set for even cheaper, and they open a hour's AFTER Target does. We will be able to get some sleep before we head there!"
 "Okay, two hours after Lowe's opens, we will head to Sandy Club and check out their great deal on sneakers!"
 "Sounds good. But on hour after Sandy opens, we need to be at Garden Mountain Quilts to see that new quilt I want!"
