

HOW TO PREPARE FOR SUCCESSFUL STUDENT LOAN REPAYMENT

Use your FSA ID to log in to StudentAid.gov

01

Your FSA ID (the same you used to complete your FAFSA) will include a username and password. Once logged in, update your personal information and confirm your student loan servicer.

Confirm your student loan servicer

02

Your servicer may vary depending on the type of loan you have. If you don't know who your servicer is, log on to studentaid.gov and visit the "My Loan Servicers" section of your dashboard.

Log in to your loan servicer account and update your contact information

03

Create an account or log in to an existing one via the servicer's website. Review and update your personal contact information, including your email and mailing address, so your servicer can reach you.

Reauthorize or select auto debit for monthly payments

04

If you were previously signed up for automatic debit before the payment pause began, you must reauthorize or select automatic debit through your loan servicer account. This will allow your loan payments to be automatically withdrawn from your bank account every month.

Review payment due date and amount

05

Make note of your monthly payment amount and the date your first payment will be due, and update any changed banking information to ensure you either proactively make a payment by the deadline or are prepared for the funds to be drawn down by auto debit.

The History of College Affordability in the United States from Colonial Times to the Cold War Thomas Adam, 2020-10-13 This book examines how tuition and student loans became an accepted part of college costs in the first half of the twentieth century The author argues that college was largely free to nineteenth century college students since local and religious communities donors and the state agreed to pay the tuition bill with the expectation that the students would serve society upon graduation College education was essentially considered a public good This arrangement ended after 1900 The increasing secularization and professionalization of college education as well as changes in the socio economic composition of the student body which included more and more students from well off families caused educators college administrators and donors to argue that students pursued a college degree for their own advancement and therefore should be made to pay for it Students were expected to pay tuition themselves and to take out student loans in order to fund their education Bulletin of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics ,2000 Direct Plus Loans, William D.
