Making College Pay Beth

Akers,2021-05-18 A leading economist makes the case that college is still a smart investment and reveals how to increase the odds of your degree paying off Full of easy to understand advice grounded in deep expertise and research Martin West William Henry Bloomberg Professor of Education Harvard University The cost of college makes for frightening headlines The outstanding balance of student loans is more than 1.5 trillion nationally while tuitions continue to rise And on the heels of a pandemic that nearly dismantled the traditional college experience we have to wonder Is college really worth it From a financial perspective says economist Beth Akers the answer is yes It s true that college is expensive but once we see higher education for what it is an investment in future opportunities job security and earnings a different picture emerges The average college graduate earns an additionalmillion dollars over their career compared to those who stopped their education after high school and on average two and four year schools deliver a 15 percent return on investment double that of the stock market Yet these outcomes are not guaranteed Rather they hinge upon where and how you opt to invest your tuition dollars Simply put the real problem with college isn t the cost it s the risk that your investment might not pay off In Making College Pay Akers shows how to improve your odds by making smart choices about where to enroll what to study and how to pay for it You ll learn why choosing the right major can matter more than where you enroll the best criteria for picking a school hint not price selectivity or ranking why working part time while enrolled might set you back financially why it s often best to borrow even if you don t have to the pros and cons of innovative alternatives to traditional college how to take advantage of new low risk financing tools Full of practical advice for students and parents Making College Pay reminds us that higher education remains an engine for opportunity upward mobility and prosperity United States Code Congress,2008-12
