uncertain about spending a week at the sprawling country estate of the family of her sister's boyfriend. For starters she doesn't get along with her sister. Then there's the fact his family is old wealthy aristocracy and Daphne's from brash new American money. Mostly it's that everyone knows Duncroft House is haunted by the ghost of a 1920s film star who died there. Deemed an accident for nearly a century people are sure it was murder. Daphne doesn't like scary things, say haunted houses. She likes it less when strange things start happening to her when she arrives. But she finds she has a surprising ally. Ian Alcott, the heir to the earldom, is rich, gorgeous, and just as concerned about the frightening things that keep befalling Daphne at his ancestral family home. As he moves to protect her, Daphne finds he's also funny, kind, and sexy as hell. Indeed, he just might be too good to be true.

Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer Petra Broomans, Mathijs Sanders, Jeanette den Toonder, Elise Bijl, 2022-02-05. Literary Prizes and Cultural Transfer addresses the multilevel nature of literary and translation prizes with the aim of expanding our knowledge about them as an international and transnational phenomenon. The contributions to this book analyse the social, institutional, and ideological functions of such prizes. This volume not only looks at famous prizes and celebrities but also lesser known prizes in more peripheral language areas and regions with a special focus on cultural transmitters and their networks which play a decisive role in the award industry. Cultural transfer and translations are at the heart of this book and this approach adds a new dimension to the study of literary and translation prizes. The contributions reveal the diverse ways in which a cultural transfer approach enhances the study of literary prizes, presenting the state of the art regarding recent developments in the field. Articles with a broader scope discuss definitions, concepts, and methods, while other contributions deal with specific case studies. A variety of theoretical and methodological approaches are explored, applying field theory, network analysis, comparative literature, and cultural transfer studies. By providing multiple perspectives on the literary prize, this volume aims to contribute to our knowledge and understanding of this intriguing phenomenon.

The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24. The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents, grandparents, and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists. This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists. It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines, newspapers, reference books, schools, libraries, parenting organizations, and professional groups from across the country. The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies: the ultimate one-stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best. Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics. Organized into five age group lists, each with one hundred books: preschoolers ages 3-5, early readers ages 5-9, middle readers ages 9-13, young adults ages 13-17, and adults ages 18+. The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States, including a few from Canada and Great Britain. Each of the 500 books is annotated, describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important. Each includes a picture of the book.
