CALADRIUS Edward Andrews, 2024-12-12 The book was written because of the love and belief of my wife We were sitting around one day and I told her about this dream I had and how it continued for several days I felt that it was some kind of a sign but I didn't know what She told me that since I had written several other books that I was in the process of updating and changing because they were out of date from when they were originally written that I needed to write these thoughts down I thought about it and she was right I started to write down the dream and in less than a month I had everything on paper She read it and after making minor changes she thought it was a great read I had to think about some of the things I wrote to bring some characters more to life and then the research started into this unknown entity to most of us called space So for the love of my life I wrote this dream and decided to make it my first entry into the world of being an author Hopefully my other books already completed will follow
