enough Jia needs to successfully set up a coworker with her perfect match to get the green light for her new column. Thankfully organising meet cutes has never been difficult for her. Local pub owner Jaiman Patil can't help but be enamoured with Jia and her meddling spirit. He's always been an honorary part of her family even more so since his own moved to America. Life with the Deshpandes is chaotic and loud but it's also more loving than anything he experienced growing up and he wouldn't risk losing that for the world. It feels manageable until his pub begins to struggle and his feelings for Jia grow deeper. When Jia's attempts at office matchmaking go haywire risking new friendships and her relationship with Jaiman she must reevaluate her own thoughts on love. For the first time Jia realises that love may be a lot more complicated than she thought. Luckily happily ever afters are never in short supply in Mumbai. Adam Grant author of Think Again The 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Happiness Project turns to the five senses

For more than a decade Gretchen Rubin had been studying happiness and human nature. Despite all she'd learned, she began to realize that something was missing: she was spending so much time stuck in her head that she wasn't noticing the world around her. In this journey of self-experimentation, Rubin explores the mysteries and joys of embracing the senses as a path to a happier, more mindful life. From the simple pleasures of appreciating ketchup and adding favourite songs to a playlist to practicing daily rituals and attending Flavor University, she discovers the power of tuning in. Life in Five Senses is filled with profound insights and practical suggestions about how to heighten our senses and live fuller, richer lives, and ultimately how to move through the world with more vitality and love. An inspiring and practical guide to living in the moment.
