Mobilities in Remote Places Phillip Vannini, 2023-07-21 Mobilities in Remote Places explores the meanings challenges and opportunities of remoteness as practiced and experienced by those who live and work in some of the world's most remote communities As mobilities around the world proliferate in countless forms the meanings of remoteness undergo significant change Places once considered impossibly distant have appeared to become closer more accessible and less distinct from global centers of geopolitical power But instead of disappearing altogether configurations of remoteness evolve manifesting themselves through new possibilities new challenges and new insecurities Drawing from a variety of case studies from around the globe the contributors of the book examine remoteness as an outcome of evolving mobility constellations Rather than defining remoteness as an absolute or objective time distance condition the book shows how remoteness is a practice experience and representation that is situated relational and emergent This collection of original and thought provoking chapters will be of interest to students and researchers in the humanities and social sciences with an interest in mobilities place and human geography Chapter 10 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Employing Our Returning Citizens Nicole C. Jones Young, Jakari N. Griffith, 2024-04-03 A criminal record can be a formidable employment barrier and is thus a major contributor to employment inequality as most employers would rather avoid hiring an individual who has committed a crime This book offering an employer centric view of the latest research findings blends interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives and empirical findings to provide an overview and areas for future management research The chapters assess the state of the field while highlighting the most critical themes that advance our understanding of the employment process and challenges for system impacted individuals Presenting a comprehensive assessment of the challenges and opportunities this volume will appeal to disciplines related to organizational behavior human resource management and employment law as well as any other disciplines that bear responsibility for enacting and crafting hiring and selection processes
