I Can Read It All by Myself Paul V. Allen, 2021-05-28 In the late 1950s Ted Geisel took on the challenge of creating a book using only 250 unique first grade words something that aspiring readers would have both the ability and the desire to read The result was an unlikely children s classic The Cat in the Hat But Geisel didn t stop there Using The Cat in the Hat as a template he teamed with Helen Geisel and Phyllis Cerf to create Beginner Books a whole new category of readers that combined research based literacy practices with the logical insanity of Dr Seuss The books were an enormous success giving the world such authors and illustrators as P D Eastman Roy McKie and Stan and Jan Berenstain and beloved bestsellers such as Are You My Mother Go Dog Go Put Me in the Zoo and Green Eggs and Ham The story of Beginner Books and Ted Geisel s role as president policymaker and editor of the line for thirty years has been told briefly in various biographies of Dr Seuss but I Can Read It All by Myself The Beginner Books Story presents it in full detail for the first time Drawn from archival research and dozens of brand new interviews I Can Read It All by Myself explores the origins philosophies and operations of Beginner Books from The Cat in the Hat in 1957 to 2019's A Skunk in My Bunk and reveals the often fascinating lives of the writers and illustrators who created them Curriculum-based Assessment Carroll J. Jones, 2008 Although curriculum based assessment CBA has been on the horizon for a number of years there has been a need for a practical classroom based approach for its implementation This second edition is a major revision and update that offers practical and specific methods for developing and using CBAs in an educational setting It gives educators a highly specific step by step approach to building CBAs in the area of reading word recognition reading comprehension content reading mathematics and written expression Each chapter offers detailed easy to read and easy to follow instructions for the assessment construction process To further clarify the process extensive examples are given in table format A unique feature of the text is the manner in which the author illustrates the principles of CBA by providing a case study on one student which is referred to in each chapter Its formative assessment approach gives the teacher additional detailed information about students' OCO performance which in turn should guide the type of instruction designed and implemented ultimately leading to higher performance on summative outcome measures Additionally detailed information is provided on subject area CBA construction the creation and implementation of a district wide CBA system for response to intervention and how to use IDEA's response to intervention in student evaluation
