Intervention in Grades 3-8 Lynn M. Gelzheiser, Donna M. Scanlon, Laura Hallgren-Flynn, Peggy Connors, 2018-08-10 This book provides innovative tools and strategies to support reading intervention for students in grades 3-8 who do not yet read with grade level accuracy. Uniquely comprehensive, the Interactive Strategies Approach Extended ISA-X has been shown to enhance intermediate and middle grade students' reading accuracy and comprehension as well as content vocabulary knowledge. Preservice and inservice teachers learn how to conduct assessments that help to identify instructional goals, monitor progress toward these goals, promote students' strategic thinking and motivation, and implement small group instruction using thematic text sets on science and social studies topics. Numerous lesson examples and a thematic text set are included. Purchasers get access to a companion website where they can download and print reproducible materials from the book as well as additional Web-only lesson templates and assessments in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size. See also Early Literacy Instruction and Intervention Third Edition: The Interactive Strategies Approach by Donna M. Scanlon, Kimberly L. Anderson, Erica M. Barnes, and Joan M. Sweeney, which focuses on supporting the literacy growth of beginning and struggling readers in grades K-2.

Learning Disorders Peter Westwood, 2017-07-14 What are learning disorders? How can schools endeavour to address these disorders in today's inclusive classrooms? This book answers these important questions in practical terms and discusses in detail the instructional needs of students with dyslexia, dysgraphia, dyscalculia, dyspraxia, and other significant disorders that affect learning. Peter Westwood draws on international research literature to provide supporting evidence of best practices. The book is unique in linking the teaching methods recommended for overcoming learning problems directly to each of the three tiers of support in the Response to Intervention Model. It presents examples of effective whole-class teaching, intensive small-group instruction, and individual tutoring, as well as addressing key topics such as educational progress of students with learning disorders, principles for teaching dyslexic students, difficulties with writing and spelling, developing students' numeracy skills, specific intervention strategies, nonverbal learning disabilities. Learning Disorders will be of interest to practising teachers, trainee teachers, and teaching assistants.

Integrating Sophisticated Standards and Systems of Support for Elementary Readers Elizabeth L. Jaeger, 2025-12-11 This book supports elementary school teachers and other school leaders in considering the ways in which sophisticated standards e g the Common Core State Standards CCSS and multi tiered systems of support MTSS can be effectively integrated to raise student reading and writing achievement The book provides practical instructions to guide professional development for teachers and administrators to assess students for MTSS placement and develop standards based lessons and assessments at all levels of MTSS The CCSS and other such standards were developed and marketed as a mechanism for raising expectations and enriching instruction for all students MTSS offers a foundational structure for supporting children who struggle with literacy providing increasingly intense levels of intervention for students who need it This book argues that integration of sophisticated standards and MTSS is necessary if we expect children who struggled with less sophisticated standards to navigate these more challenging standards effectively It reviews the two initiatives and the potential for integration proposes professional development opportunities for crafting curriculum that reflect this integration and offers examples of what standards based units might look like for classroom instruction MTSS Tier 1 small group instruction Tier 2 and one on one tutoring Tier 3 With examples of lessons and assessments this book is ideal for elementary school teachers academic coaches school administrators and other
