Incorporating Technology for Teaching Vocabulary to Second Language Learners Ehsan Rassaei,Xuesong Gao,Brian Poole,2023-04-04 Theories, Models, and Practices of Literacy Misty Sailors,Idalia Nuñez,Vaughn W. M. Watson,James V. Hoffman,Donna E. Alvermann,2025-11-11 This eighth edition of Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy a foundational text in literacy research is updated to represent a new era in contemporary and critical scholarship With a revised name the intentional inclusion of diverse perspectives and new organizational structure Theories Models and Practices of Literacy thoroughly represents the theories that drive literacy and the scholars who write about and within the field. While still representing the most comprehensive source for connecting theories to literacy research and practice, this eighth edition builds on preceding editions contextualizing its historical roots, promoting and highlighting contemporary and critical theories, and envisioning future directions in literacy. This volume addresses theories across ten sections including early youth and community literacies, teaching literacy and literacy teacher education, disabilities and disciplinary literacy, theories digital and multimodal literacies, and the disruption of colonial boundaries in language and global literacies. The chapters in this volume are curated to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and foster its evolution. Additional archival essays from previous editions will remain available as Support Material on the book's webpage. New to the eighth edition: 80% new material and significantly revised previous materials to reflect emerging and contemporary theories and scholarship; A more globalized approach to theorizing literacy practices, including those with onto-epistemological perspectives rooted in people's lived experiences; literacies and languages to engage scholars and audiences who may be new users of the text; Focus on theories that actively challenge traditional theoretical literacy frames and raise critical consciousness toward communities marginalized by the white gaze, historically represented in literacy theory, literacy research, and literacy education; New avenues for readers to explore how theory informs practice, practice informs theory, and how both are taken up in various contexts, e.g., classrooms, schools, communities, and societies.

Envisioning the Future of Online Learning Johan Eddy Luaran, Janudin Sardi, Anealka Aziz, Nor Aziah Alias, 2016-06-10. This book shares insights into the various ways technology can be used for educational purposes, utilizing an approach suitable for both novice and advanced practitioners in this niche area. It features selected papers presented at the International Conference on e-Learning 2015 (ICeL 2015) where professionals discussed how technology can not only serve as a tool in the classroom but as the classroom itself. As the title Envisioning the Future of Online Learning suggests, this book showcases current best practices in the field of e-learning where technology has been leveraged to re-engineer the landscape of education, particularly in the context of Malaysia.

Literacy for Digital Futures Kathy A. Mills, Len Unsworth, Laura Scholes, 2022-09-30. The unprecedented rate of global technological and societal change calls for a radical new understanding of literacy. This book offers a nuanced framework for making sense of literacy by addressing knowledge as contextualised, embodied, multimodal, and digitally mediated. In today's world of technological breakthroughs, social shifts, and rapid changes to the educational landscape, literacy can no longer be understood through established curriculum and static text structures. To prepare teachers, scholars, and researchers for the digital future, the book is organised around three themes: Mind and Materiality, Body and Senses, and Texts and Digital Semiotics, to shape readers' understanding of literacy. Opening up new interdisciplinary themes, Mills, Unsworth, and Scholes confront emerging issues for next-generation digital literacy practices. The volume helps new and established researchers rethink dynamic changes in the materiality of texts and their implications for the mind and body, and features recommendations for educational and professional practice Education and Technology Support for Children and Young Adults With ASD and Learning Disabilities Kats, Yefim, Stasolla, Fabrizio, 2020-11-13 Among the disabilities covered at the state and federal levels autism and related conditions are a sharply growing diagnostic category among children and young adults In education administrators and practitioners working with affected learners are continually faced with confronting difficult problems such as getting adequate personnel training and choosing appropriate tools and techniques that best fit the specific needs of their students while at the same time satisfying their budget technical resources curriculum and profile of the ASD population they serve The choice of appropriate tools is especially complex due to the intrinsic connection between technical specifications educational therapeutic methods and the wide variety of ASDs and related conditions In this respect tools chosen to support children may need to target those diagnosed not only with ASD but also with such co morbidity conditions as attention deficit disorder The instructional strategies and use of technology currently have room for improvement for online hybrid and face to face counseling settings Also an effective evaluation of educational technologies and tools would be fundamentally incomplete without a thorough understanding and assessment of the related special education practices as well as psychological and neurological issues specific for ASD and learning disabilities Education and Technology Support for Children and Young Adults With ASD and Learning Disabilities provides an in depth analysis on the use of available technology solutions instructional design methods and assessment techniques in the context of standards and regulations in classroom or counseling settings The chapters contain theoretical analyses vital practical information and case studies that can function as guidelines for those involved in helping children and young adults with ASD or learning disabilities in online hybrid or face to face environments While highlighting topics such as inclusive education online gaming environments assistive technologies and cognitive development this book is ideally intended for administrators instructional technology specialists special education faculty counselors instructional designers course developers social workers and psychologists along with practitioners stakeholders researchers and academicians interested in education and technology support for children and young adults with ASD and learning disabilities Striking a Balance Nancy L. Cecil, Albert Lozano, Mae Chaplin, 2020-05-04 Now in its sixth edition Striking a Balance clearly illustrates how to create a comprehensive early literacy program that places direct skills instruction within the context of rich and varied reading and writing experiences Text discussions dynamic activities and valuable appendices provide a variety of effective instructional resources selected based on research and teacher testimonials The sixth edition incorporates recent updates to national and state standards as well as expanded sections on working with English language learners and students with special needs while maintaining the book s essential features classroom vignettes discussion questions field based activities a student website and study guide An essential resource for early literacy instructors this textbook s practical approach fundamentally demonstrates how children develop authentic literacy skills through a combination of direct strategy instruction and
