Steiner,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1997 The art collection assembled by Edgar Degas was remarkable not only for its quality size and depth but also for its revelation of Degas s artistic affinities He acquired great numbers of works by the nineteenth century French masters Ingres Delacroix and Daumier he bought or bartered his own pictures for art by many of his contemporaries particularly Manet Cezanne Gauguin and Cassatt and he acquired works by a wide range of other artists from eminent to little known The extent of Degas s holdings was not recognized until after his death when the collection came up for auction in Paris in 1918 and in what was called the sale of the century was widely dispersed Extensive research has made it possible to reassemble that collection in book form This summary catalogue contains information on the more than five thousand works owned by Degas For each work catalogued the entry includes to the extent possible a
