William Goldman's Nobody Knows Anything mantra which argues that success is the result of managerial intuition and instinct. This book builds the case that combining such intuition with data analytics and rigorous scholarly knowledge provides a source of sustainable competitive advantage the same recipe for success that is behind the rise of firms such as Netflix and Spotify but has also fueled Disney's recent success. Unlocking a large repertoire of scientific studies by business scholars and entertainment economists the authors identify essential factors mechanisms and methods that help a new entertainment product succeed. The book thus offers a timely alternative to Nobody Knows decision making in the digital era while coupling a good idea with smart data analytics and entertainment theory cannot guarantee a hit it systematically and substantially increases the probability of success in the entertainment industry. Entertainment Science is poised to inspire fresh new thinking among managers students of entertainment and scholars alike. Thorsten Hennig Thureau and Mark B Houston two of our finest scholars in the area of entertainment marketing have produced a definitive research based compendium that cuts across various branches of the arts to explain the phenomena that provide consumption experiences to capture the hearts and minds of audiences. Morris B Holbrook W T Dillard Professor Emeritus of Marketing Columbia University. Entertainment Science is a must read for everyone working in the entertainment industry today where the impact of digital and the use of big data can't be ignored anymore. Hennig Thureau and Houston are the scientific frontrunners of knowledge that the industry urgently needs. Science Fiction Blockbuster Mark T. Decker, 2016-03-08 Can blockbuster films be socially relevant or are they just escapist diversions to entertain the masses and enrich the studios Not every successful film contains thoughtful commentary but some that are marketed as pure entertainment do seriously engage social issues Popular science fiction films of the late 1970s and early 1980s such as George Lucas Star Wars trilogy Ridley Scott's Alien and Aliens and James Cameron's Terminator films present a critique of our engagement with technology in a way that resonates with 1960s counterculture As challengers of the status quo's technological underpinnings Luke Skywalker Ellen Ripley and Sarah Connor echo the once popular social criticism of philosopher Herbert Marcuse and speak directly to the concerns of people living in a technologically complex society The films of Lucas Scott and Cameron made money but also made us think about the world we live in
