The Path to Mechanized Shoe Production in the United States Ross Thomson, 2018-08-25 In 1800 shoes in the United States were made by craftsmen each trained to create an entire shoe A century later shoes were mass produced in factories employing dozens of machines and specialized workers Ross Thomson describes this transition from craft to mechanized production in one of the largest American industries of the nineteenth century Early shoe machinery originated through innovations made by shoemakers tailors and especially machinists It continued to evolve through a process of learning by selling in which sales of one generation of machines led to technological learning and ongoing invention by those who used serviced and sold them As a result of this process the mechanization of the shoe industry and the manufacturers of the machinery it used including such firms as Singer and United Shoe Machinery evolved together In researching the process of industrialization Thomson examined nearly 8 000 patents Comparing the patent information with directories for more than eighty American cities he was able to find out who the inventors were who employed them how many patents they held and the extent to which their inventions were used Originally published in 1989 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Forgotten Son Richard Dukes,2024-07-25 This is a story that could have happened and is probably happening as I write this It takes place during and after the Vietnam War era a time of successes and failures Hugh Thornwell went through that struggle in Vietnam and although not realizing it he left behind a secret that would one day come back and disrupt his life You see he fell in love at age twenty two with a beautiful Vietnamese girl and this affair would one day come back and change his life Hugh had his whole life planned out just graduated from LSU preparing to go to LSU Law School etc Well things don t always work out the way we plan He didn t plan on Vietnam His draft notice came one week after graduating from LSU and he could see four years of his life taken from him What a bummer he thought After all he should be proud to serve his country He was proud he just didn t believe in this war And his story begins
