The Inequality Machine

Paul Tough, 2021-03-04 Indelible and extraordinary a powerful reckoning with just how far we've allowed reality to drift from our ideals Tara Westover New York Times Book Review We're told that universities are our greatest driver of social mobility But it's a lie The Inequality Machine is a damning exposé of how the university system ingrains injustice at every level of American society Paul Tough bestselling author of How Children Succeed exposes a world where small town colleges go bust while the most prestigious raise billions every year where overstretched admissions officers are forced to pick rich candidates over smart ones where black and working class students are left to sink or swim on uncaring campuses Along the way he uncovers cutting edge research from the academics leading the way to a new kind of university one where students succeed not because of their background but because of the quality of their minds The result is a call to arms for universities that work for everyone and a manual for how we can make it happen Humanizes the process of higher education Fascinating stories about efforts to remediate class disparities in higher education New Yorker

The Secrets of Picking a College (and Getting In!) Lynn F. Jacobs, Jeremy S. Hyman, Jeffrey Durso-Finley, Jonah T. Hyman, 2015-10-23 Two award winning professors a former admissions officer at a major university now a counselor at a prestigious high school and a gifted high school senior now in the throes of the college admissions process himself team up to offer you over 600 tips techniques and strategies to help you get in to the college of your choice Comprehensive yet easy to read this book will teach you How to size up the colleges you're considering and come up with a coherent list What are college nights college fairs and college rep visits and how you can use each to your advantage What are holistic contextualized and legacy admissions and how each can work for you How some schools count demonstrated interest and how you can take advantage of this little known fact What are Early Decision Early Action and Single Choice Early Action and whether any is right for you How to figure out the true costs of college and what is the difference between need and merit based aid What it means when colleges say they meet 100% of demonstrated financial aid and what loan free means When and how to make campus visits and what to do on each How to prepare for each section of the ACT or SAT and how to increase your scores What admissions officers are looking for in your application and how to give it to them How to write the all important Common App essay and present your extra curricular activities How to prepare for an alumni interview and present yourself in the best light Whom to ask for letters of recommendation and how to help them write the best possible letter How to compare your final offers and in some cases substantially improve them When it's good to wait out the wait list and when not and much much more When you understand the college admissions process you can maximize your chance of success Why not put yourself ahead of the pack

Cracking the Advanced Placement Spanish, 2004-2005 Princeton Review (Firm), 2004 The fiercer the competition to get into college the more schools require that students prove themselves in other ways than SAT scores and grade point averages The more expensive college educations become the more students take advantage of the opportunity to test out of first year college courses Includes 2 sample tests with full explanations for all answers The Princeton Review's proven score raising skills and techniques Complete subject review of all the material likely to show up on the AP Spanish exam

Natural Classroom Assessment Jeffrey K. Smith, Lisa F. Smith, Richard De Lisi, 2001 Assess classroom learning and improve instruction with comfort and ease Now there is a fresh perspective on assessment that starts from your strengths in the classroom and results in improved instruction and learning Even the beginner teacher can learn how to use assessment to help students focus on strengths and overcome weaknesses Natural Classroom Assessment was written to illustrate how assessing classroom learning can be a natural extension of the teaching process Learn how to analyze results in your classroom using your own particular teaching style and learn how to evaluate the assessments of others Some of the key topics covered Determining goals targets and objectives Designing assessments that evolve from instruction Choosing authentic assessments and projects Using multiple choice essays and reports Preparing students for assessment Scoring and communicating results Planning parent teacher conferences Assessing students with special needs This is a comprehensive but accessible guide to increase effectiveness in the classroom An essential resource for both experienced and novice teachers who want to gain confidence about the assessment process

Guilty Admissions Nicole LaPorte, 2021-02-23 This entertaining expos on how the other half gets in tells the shockingly true story of the Varsity Blues scandal and all of the crazy parents privilege and con men involved Guilty Admissions weaves together the story of an unscrupulous college counselor named Rick Singer and how he preyed on the desperation of some of the country's wealthiest families living in a world defined by fierce competition who function under constant pressure to get into the right schools starting with pre school non stop fundraising and donation demands in the form of multi million dollar galas and private parties and a community of deeply insecure parents who will do anything to get their kids into name brand colleges in order to maintain their own A list status Investigative reporter Nicole LaPorte lays bare the source of this insecurity that in 2019 no special hook in the form of legacy status athletic talent or financial giving can guarantee a child's entrance into an elite school The result is paranoia deception and true crimes at the peak of the American social pyramid With a glittering cast of Hollywood actors including Felicity Huffman and Lori Loughlin hedge fund CEOs sales executives and media titans Guilty Admissions is a soap opera slash sneak peek behind the curtains at America's richest social circles an examination of the cutthroat world of college admissions and a parable of American society in 2019 when the country is run by a crass tycoon and all totems of status and achievement have become transactional and removed from traditions of ethical restraint A world where the rich get whatever they want however they want it
