The Life of Texts Kiene Brillenburg Wurth, Ann Rigney, 2019-11-08 This innovative introduction to literary studies takes the life of texts as its overarching frame It provides a conceptual and methodological toolbox for analysing novels poems and all sorts of other texts as they circulate in oral print and digital form It shows how texts inspire each other and how stories migrate across media It explains why literature has been interpreted in different ways across time Finally it asks why some texts fascinate people so much that they are reproduced and passed on to others in the form of new editions in adaptations to film and theatre and last but not least in the ways we look at the world and act out our lives The Life of Texts is designed around particular issues rather than the history of the discipline as such Each chapter concentrates on a different aspect of the life of texts and introduces the key debates and concepts relevant to its study The issues discussed range from aesthetics and narrative to intertextuality and intermediality from reading practices to hermeneutics and semiotics popular culture to literary canonisation postcolonial criticism to cultural memory Key concepts and schools in the field have been highlighted in the text and then collected in a glossary for ease of reference All chapters are richly illustrated with examples from different language areas
