Public Scholarship in Communication Studies Thomas J. Billard, Silvio

Waisbord, 2024-03-26 Prometheus brought the gift of enlightenment to humanity and suffered for his benevolence This collection takes on scholars Promethean view of themselves as selfless bringers of light and instead offers a new vision of public scholarship as service to society Thomas J Billard and Silvio Waisbord curate essays from a wide range of specialties within the study of communication Aimed at scholars and students alike the contributors use approaches from critical meditations to case studies to how to guides as they explore the possibilities of seeing shared knowledge not as a gift to be granted but as an imperative urging readers to address the problems of the world Throughout the volume the works show that a pivot to ideas of scholarship as public service is already underway in corners of communication studies across the country Visionary and provocative Public Scholarship in Communication Studies proposes a needed reconsideration of knowledge and a roadmap to its integration with community Contributors Elaine Almeida Becca Beets Thomas J Billard Danielle K Brown Aymar Jean Christian Stacey L Connaughton Paula Gardner Larry Gross Amy Jordan Daniel Kreiss Rachel Kuo Susan Mancino Shannon C McGregor Philip M Napoli Todd P Newman Srividya Ramasubramanian Chad Raphael Sue Robinson Silvio Waisbord Yidong Wang and Holley Wilkin

Employability via Higher Education: Sustainability as Scholarship Alice Diver, 2019-09-23 This book discusses the topic of graduate employability from the premise that in this era of massification economic austerity and political uncertainties higher education HE no longer guarantees a clear work place advantage Divided into three sections the book offers theoretical and philosophical discourses on the HE quandary whilst taking into account and critiquing political temporal and national contexts It culminates in an investigation into specific discipline areas It offers insights into the way that institutions decision makers academics and professional support staff can work together towards ensuring that our graduates are able to cope with the varied demands and challenges of modern job markets It harnesses arguments and reflections on the breadth and depth of the functions of HE such as social transformation promoting principles of social justice and providing opportunities It grounds these in a triadic model for enhancing student engagement and holistic learning namely the emotional cognitive and behavioural aspects As an anthology it is forward gazing in terms of the sustainability debate whilst still offering evidence based research grounded practical suggestions to readers looking for tips and tools of the trade Doing Public Scholarship Christopher J.

Schneider,2023-12-05 A basic premise of public scholarship is making academic work and related ideas accessible and available to publics Media engagement whether interviews with news journalists or the use of hashtags is a necessary feature of any public scholarship Media formats play a fundamental and interactive role in how people ultimately come to view and understand the social world having had a discernable influence on election outcomes responses to global pandemics and so on The question is not whether scholars should engage with media but how to do so Drawing on fifteen years of experience that includes hundreds of print radio and television news interviews dozens of published opinion pieces and the use of social media for public engagement this book outlines a practical easy to follow approach to doing public sociology in media that consists of and brings together interrelated forms of media engagement This book also offers some advice pertaining to career advancement and provides strategies to avoid negative experiences Doing Public Scholarship will be of general interest to those wanting to go public with their research *Catalogue Number.
