As We Forgive Catherine Claire Larson,2009-05-26 Inspired by the award winning film of the same name If you were told that a murderer was to be released into your neighborhood how would you feel But what if it weren t only one but thousands Could there be a common roadmap to reconciliation Could there be a shared future after unthinkable evil If forgiveness is possible after the slaughter of nearly a million in a hundred days in Rwanda then today more than ever we owe it to humanity to explore how one country is addressing perceptual social psychological and spiritual dimensions to achieve a more lasting peace If forgiveness is possible after genocide then perhaps there is hope for the comparably smaller rifts that plague our relationships our communities and our nation Based on personal interviews and thorough research As We Forgive returns to the boundary lines of genocide s wounds and traces the route of reconciliation in the lives of Rwandans victims widows orphans and perpetrators whose past and future intersect We find in these stories how suffering memory and identity set up roadblocks to forgiveness while mediation truth telling restitution and interdependence create bridges to healing As We Forgive explores the pain the mystery and the hope through seven compelling stories of those who have made this journey toward reconciliation The result is a narrative that breathes with humanity and is as haunting as it is hopeful
