Ordinary Cities Between Modernity And Development Questioning Cities:

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 With the urbanization of the world's population proceeding apace and the equally rapid urbanization of poverty urban theory has an urgent challenge to meet if it is to remain relevant to the majority of cities and their populations many of which are outside the West This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for urban development It makes the argument that all cities are best understood as ordinary and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities especially those labelled Third World It considers the two framing axes of urban modernity and development and argues that if cities are to be imagined in equitable and creative ways urban theory must overcome these axes with their Western bias and that resources must become at least as cosmopolitan as cities themselves Tracking paths across previously separate literatures and debates this innovative book a postcolonial critique of urban studies traces the outlines of a cosmopolitan approach to cities drawing on evidence from Rio Johannesburg Lusaka and Kuala Lumpur Key urban scholars and debates from Simmel Benjamin and the Chicago School to Global and World Cities theories are explored together with anthropological and developmentalist accounts of poorer cities Offering an alternative approach Ordinary Cities skilfully brings together theories of urban development for students and researchers of urban studies geography and development

Ordinary Cities Jennifer Robinson, 2013-07-04 This groundbreaking book establishes a new framework for thinking about urban development and crosses the longstanding divide in urban scholarship and urban policy between Western and other cities

Die internationale Stadt Tanger Daniela Hettstedt, 2022-03-07 Die marokkanische Stadt Tanger liegt an der Straße von Gibraltar auf der Schwelle von Europa und Afrika Orient und Okzident Hier gründeten Diplomaten aus bis zu 13 verschiedenen Staaten ab Mitte des 19. Jahrhunderts internationale Organisationen die die Basis für eine von 1923 bis 1956 bestehende Sonderverwaltungszone bildeten Die Internationalisierung der Stadt wird von der Autorin nicht nur in die Kolonialgeschichte Marokkos eingeordnet sondern selbst als eine spezifische Form der kolonialen Herrschaft als geteilter Kolonialismus konzeptualisiert Diesen untersucht sie über einen Zeitraum von rund 100 Jahren und anhand stadtplanerischer Infrastrukturprojekte wie dem Bau von Kanalisation und Schlachthaus Auf diese Weise wird am Beispiel der Stadt Tanger sichtbar wie sich globale und lokale Entwicklungsprozesse gegenseitig bedingten und einen klar definierten Raum nachhaltig prägten Erstmals konnte die Autorin für diese Studie weit verstreute Akten aus den Archiven internationaler Organisationen zusammentragen und mit dem Ansatz der transnationalen Geschichte auswerten Daniela Hettstedt erhielt 2020 für ihre Studie den Dissertationspreis der Gesellschaft für Stadtgeschichte und Urbanisierungsforschung

State of Slum Paul Stacey, 2019-04-15 Home to eighty thousand people Accra s Old Fadama neighbourhood is the largest illegal slum in Ghana Though almost all its inhabitants are Ghanaian born their status as illegal squatters means that they live a precarious existence marginalised within Ghanaian society and denied many of the rights to which they are entitled as citizens The case of Old Fadama is far from unique Across Africa over half the population now lives in cities and a lack of affordable housing means that growing numbers live in similar illegal slum communities often in appalling conditions Drawing on rich ethnographic fieldwork the book takes as its point of departure the narratives that emerge from the everyday lives and struggles of these people using the perspective offered by Old Fadama as a means of identifying wider trends and dynamics across African slums Central to Stacey s argument is the idea that such slums possess their own structures of governance grounded in processes of negotiation between slum residents and external actors In the process

Stacey transforms our understanding not only of slums but of governance itself moving us beyond prevailing state centric approaches to consider how even a society's most marginal members can play a key role in shaping and contesting state power

Subaltern Urbanisation in India Eric Denis, Marie-Hélène Zerah, 2017-03-01 This volume decentres the view of urbanisation in India from large agglomerations towards smaller urban settlements It presents the outcomes of original research conducted over three years on subaltern processes of urbanization The volume is organised in four sections A first one deals with urbanisation dynamics and systems of cities with chapters on the new census towns demographic and economic trajectories of cities and employment transformation The interrelations of land transformation social and cultural changes form the topic of the land society belonging section based on ethnographic work in various parts of India Karnataka Himachal Pradesh Arunachal Pradesh and Tamil Nadu A third section focuses on public policies governance and urban services with a set of macro analysis based papers and specific case studies Understanding the nature of production and innovation in non metropolitan contexts closes this volume Finally though focused on India this research raises larger questions with regard to the study of urbanisation and development worldwide

Rethinking Global Urbanism Xiangming Chen, Ahmed Kanna, 2012 Arguing that the focus in global urban studies on cities such as New York London Tokyo in the global North Mexico City and Shanghai in the developing world and other major nodes of the world economy has skewed the concept of the global city toward economics this volume gathers a diverse group of contributors to focus on smaller and less economically dominant cities It highlights other important and relatively ignored themes such as cultural globalization alternative geographies of the global and the influence of deeper urban histories particularly those relating to colonialism in order to advance an alternative view of the global city

History in the 20th Century Max Welch Guerra, Abdellah Abarkan, María A. Castrillo Romón, Martin Pekár, 2022-08-11 The history of Europe in the 20th century is closely tied to the history of urban planning Social and economic progress but also the brute treatment of people and nature throughout Europe were possible due to the use of urban planning and the other levels of spatial planning Thereby planning has constituted itself in Europe as an international subject Since its emergence through intense exchange but also competition despite country differences planning has developed as a European field of practice and scientific discipline Planning is here much more than the addition of individual histories however historiography has treated this history very selective regarding geography and content This book searches for an understanding of the historiography of planning in a European dimension Scholars from Eastern and Western Southern and Northern Europe address the issues of the public led production of city and the social functions of urban planning in capitalist and state socialist countries The examined examples include Poland and USSR Czech Republic and Slovakia UK Netherlands Germany France Portugal and Spain Italy and Sweden The book will be of interest to students and scholars for Urbanism Urban Town Planning Spatial Planning Spatial Politics Urban Development Urban Policies Planning History and European History of the 20th Century The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon II, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue Spatialities of Urban Change Lochner Marais, Gustav Visser, 2008-07-01 It is against a post colonial backdrop that the collection of essays assembled in this book aims to make a contribution to understanding the realities of urban centres which feature less frequently in the academic press The research reported in this collection echoes and highlights many of the themes found in both urban theory derived from the realities of many world cities and the challenges remarked upon in development theory seen in much of the work focused on South Africa s main metropolitan regions Worlding Home Maren Larsen, 2025-10-28 Worlding Home interrogates the social spatial and architectural lifeworlds of United Nations UN peacekeepers accommodated in contingent camps throughout Goma the capital of North Kivu in the Democratic Republic of the Congo From 2017 to 2019 more than twenty of these camps existed in and around the city operating as sites of global outreach even as they generated new ways of being at home for peacekeepers and the peace kept population Through multisited ethnography and deep engagement with anthropological and urban theory author Maren Larsen explores the entanglements of camp and city Pushing against readings of Goma s peacekeeping camps as either more privileged enclaves or as outliers in camp studies when compared to refugee camps Larsen argues for an understanding of camp as a process and practice Between dwelling and journeying and here and there the everyday lives and embodied practices of Goma s peacekeepers and Congolese civilians co construct a city as elsewhere in which camping is a vital urban practice By offering a more expansive understanding of how UN peacekeeping camps fit within Goma s urban fabric Worlding Home reveals the intertwined sociospatial processes of making a home building a city and reimagining the world Globalization, Violence and the Visual Culture of Cities Christoph Lindner, 2009-09-10 This book is the first interdisciplinary volume to examine the complex relationship between globalization violence and the visual culture of cities Cities in Globalization Peter Taylor, Ben Derudder, Pieter Saey, Frank Witlox, 2006-11-20 Despite traditionally being a strong research topic in urban studies inter city relations had become grossly neglected until recently when it was placed back on the research agenda with the advent of studies of world global cities More recently the external relations of cities have taken their place alongside internal relations within cities to constitute the full nature of cities This collection of essays on how and why cities are connecting to each other in a globalizing world provides evidence for a new city centered geography that is emerging in the twenty first century Cities in Globalization covers four key themes beginning with the different ways of measuring a world city network ranging from analyses of corporate structures to airline passenger flows Second is the recent European advances in studying urban systems which are compared to the Anglo American city networks approach These chapters add conceptual vigour to traditional themes and provide findings on European cities in globalization Thirdly the political implications of these new geographies of flows are considered in a variety of contexts the localism of city planning specialist political world cities and the war on terror Finally there are a series of chapters that critically review the state of our knowledge on contemporary relations between cities in globalization Cities in Globalization provides an up to date assembly of leading American and European researchers reporting their ideas on the critical issue of how cities are faring in contemporary globalization and is highly illustrated throughout with over forty figures and tables

Cities of the Global South Reader Faranak Miraftab, Neema Kudva, 2014-10-10 The Cities of the Global South Reader adopts a fresh and critical approach to the field of urbanization in the developing world The Reader incorporates both early and emerging debates about the diverse trajectories of urbanization processes in the context of the restructured global alignments in the last three decades Emphasizing the historical legacies of colonialism the Reader recognizes the entanglement of conditions and concepts often understood in binary relations first third worlds wealth poverty development underdevelopment and inclusion exclusion By asking whose city whose development the Reader rigorously highlights the fractures along lines of class race gender and other socially and spatially constructed hierarchies in global South cities The Reader's thematic structure where editorial introductions accompany selected texts examines the issues and concerns that urban dwellers planners and policy makers face in the contemporary world These include the urban economy housing basic services infrastructure the role of non state civil society based actors planned interventions and contestations the role of diaspora capital the looming problem of adapting to climate change and the increasing spectre of violence in a post 9 11 transnational world The Cities of the Global South Reader pulls together a diverse set of readings from scholars across the world some of which have been written specially for the volume to provide an essential resource for a broad interdisciplinary readership at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in urban geography urban sociology and urban planning as well as disciplines related to international and development studies Editorial commentaries that introduce the central issues for each theme summarize the state of the field and outline an associated bibliography They will be of particular value for lecturers students and researchers making the Cities of the Global South Reader a key text for those interested in understanding contemporary urbanization processes

Taken For A Ride Matteo Rizzo, 2017-05-26 How does public transport work in an African city under neoliberalism Who owns what in it Who has the power to influence its shape and changes in it over time What does it mean to be a precarious and informal worker in the private minibuses that provide public transport in Dar es Salaam These are the main questions that inform this in depth case study of Dar es Salaam's public transport system over more than forty years The growth of cities and informal economies are two central manifestations of globalization in the developing world Taken for a Ride addresses both drawing on long term fieldwork in Dar es Salaam Tanzania and charting its public transport system's journey from public to private provision This new addition to the Critical Frontiers of Theory Research and Practice in International Development Studies series investigates this shift alongside the increasing deregulation of the sector and the resulting chaotic modality of public transport. It reviews state attempts to regain control over public transport and documents how informal wage relations prevailed in the sector. The changing political attitude of workers towards employers and the state is investigated from an initial incapacity to respond to exploitation to the political organisation and unionisation which won workers concessions on labour rights. A longitudinal study of workers throws light on patterns of occupational mobility in the sector and the political and economic interests that shaped the introduction of Bus Rapid Transit in Dar es Salaam and local resistance to it are analysed. Taken for a Ride reveals the political economy of public transport exposing the limitations of market fundamentalist and post colonial scholarship on economic informality, the urban experience in developing countries and the failure to locate the agency of the urban poor within their economic and political structures. It is both a contribution and a call for the contextualised study of actually existing neoliberalism.
