there for years This sent me into a downward spiral I developed Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and lived in fear my whole childhood and into my adult life This leads to suicide attempts and thoughts about it every day for the next 20 years Nothing can make you think that your life does not matter more than when no one believed you as a child about abuse even though this person confessed to multiple witnesses and the police I became homeless in 2019 and was living in a tent for over 49 days without any hope of making a life for myself No one would miss me if I was gone those thoughts were widespread on my mind until I woke myself from this disastrous life and decided to write a book about my whole life I figured it could only help relieve the pain and anger I have had for this town and its law enforcement for years The Police let me down as they have so many across this nation This 500 page book may not be the best written in the world but it is my release from the sadness and fear that had taken hold of my whole life I let fear win I let him win I let this town cover up this corruption for years until now My Name is Christopher Baxley I was Sexually Abused from the ages of 8 years old until I was 13 years old by a person in my family After abusing me he became I juvenile probation officer I counselor for young boys A little league baseball coach for young boys in my hometown Everyone that knew about his abuse and covered it up should be in jail I have P T S D and Panic Disorder with Agoraphobia This is my story Thank You Google for allowing me to publish this book
