

ORANGES by Gary Soto

The first time I walked
With a girl, I was twelve,
Cold, and weighted down
With two oranges in my jacket,
December, Frost cracking
Beneath my steps, my breath
Before me, then gone,
As I walked toward
Her house, the one whose Porch light burned yellow
Night and day, in any weather,
A dog barked at me, until
She came out pulling
At her gloves, face bright
With rouge, I stalled,
Touched her shoulder, and led
Her down the street, across
A used car lot and a line
Of newly planted trees,
Until we were breathing
Before a drugstore. We Entered, the tiny bell
Bringing a saleslady
Down a narrow aisle of goods,
I turned to the candles
Tiered like bleachers,
And asked what she wanted -
Light in her eyes, a smile
Starting at the corners
Of her mouth, I fingered

Name: _____

A nickel in my pocket,
And when she lifted a chocolate
That cost a dime,
I didn't say anything.
I took the nickel from
My pocket, then an orange,
And set them quietly on
The counter. When I looked up,
The lady's eyes met mine,
And held them, knowing
Very well what it was all
About.

Outside,
A few cars blessing past,
Fog hanging like old
Coats between the trees,
I took my girl's hand
In mine for two blocks,
Then released it to let
Her unwrap the chocolate,
I peeled my orange
That was so bright against
The gray of December
That, from some distance,
Someone might have thought
I was making a fire in my hands.

Critical Encounters in Secondary English Deborah Appleman, 2015-04-28 Because of the emphasis placed on nonfiction and informational texts by the Common Core State Standards literature teachers all over the country are re evaluating their curriculum and looking for thoughtful ways to incorporate nonfiction into their courses They are also rethinking their pedagogy as they consider ways to approach texts that are outside the usual fare of secondary literature classrooms The Third Edition of Critical Encounters in Secondary English provides an integrated approach to incorporating nonfiction and informational texts into the literature classroom Grounded in solid theory with new field tested classroom activities this new edition shows teachers how to adapt practices that have always defined good pedagogy to the new generation of standards for literature instruction New for the Third Edition A new preface and new introduction that discusses the CCSS and their implications for literature instruction Lists of nonfiction texts at the end of each chapter related to the critical lens described in that chapter A new chapter on new historicism a critical lens uniquely suited to interpreting nonfiction and informational sources New classroom activities created and field tested specifically for use with nonfiction texts Additional activities that demonstrate how informational texts can be used in conjunction with traditional literary texts What a smart and useful book Mike Rose University of California Los Angeles This book has enriched my understanding both of teaching literature and of how I read I know of no other book quite like it Michael W Smith Temple University College of Education I have recommended Critical Encounters to every group of preservice and practicing teachers that I have taught or worked with and I will continue to do so Ernest Morrell director of the Institute for Urban and Minority Education IUME Teachers College Columbia University Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers A Close Look at Close Reading Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, Maria Grant, Kelly Johnson, 2015-05-21 The Common Core State Standards have put close reading in the spotlight as never before While middle and high school teachers want and need students to connect with analyze and learn from both literary and informational texts many are unsure how to foster the skills students must have in order to develop deep and nuanced understanding of complicated content Is there a process to follow How is close reading different from shared reading and other common literacy practices How do you prepare students to have their ability to analyze complex texts measured by high stakes assessments And how do you fit close reading instruction and experiences into an already crowded curriculum Literacy experts Barbara Moss Diane Lapp Maria Grant and Kelly Johnson answer these questions and more as they explain how to teach middle and high school students to be close readers how to make close reading a habit of practice across the content areas and why doing so will build content knowledge Informed by the authors extensive field experience and enriched by dozens of real life scenarios and downloadable tools and templates this book explores Text complexity and how to determine if a particular text is right for your learning purposes and your students The process and purpose of close reading with an emphasis on its role in developing the 21st century thinking speaking and writing skills essential for academic communication and college and career readiness How to plan teach and manage close reading sessions across the academic disciplines including the kinds of questions to ask texts to use and supports to provide How to assess close reading and help all students regardless of linguistic cultural or academic background connect deeply with what they read and derive meaning from complex texts Equipping students with the tools and process of close reading sets them on the road to becoming analytical and critical thinkers and empowered and independent learners In this comprehensive resource you ll find everything you need to start their journey Key Words Cory Gann,2018-03-19 Key Words Reclaiming Children s Precious Vocabulary is about early and emergent literacy it promotes the concept that each child possesses a key vocabulary of words that are special and magical These words conjure emotions that can lead them into the enterprise of reading Words such as mom or love or a sister s name a friend or a beloved game these expressions are read by the young child even before they have commenced formal decoding They are sight words but of a special kind because they evoke an emotional response They are called key and each child might well produce her or his own key ring of thirty or forty words They become the stuff of writing the personal and the meaningful in accordance with all of the honored theory about nurturing young writers This book is full of classroom stories that elaborate the process of a key word approach The stories are humorous engaging and inspiring They are accompanied by specific detailed guidelines for instituting a key word program in any early childhood classroom Special attention is paid to students progression into writing curriculum as an outgrowth of doing words The context of culturally relevant equity and anti bias education is established throughout every chapter Ph Lit Bronze A/I/E Prentice-Hall Staff,1991
