Ordinary Enchantments Magical Realism And The Remystification Of Narrative:

Ordinary Enchantments Wendy B. Faris, 2004 Ordinary Enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance In the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date Wendy B Faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of Latin American writers like Gabriel Garcia Marquez but also of authors like Salman Rushdie Gunter Grass Toni Morrison and Ben Okri Faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the West Noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits Because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces At the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within In addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism Faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity And finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism

Formen des Magischen

Realismus und der Jüdischen Renaissance Bettina Bannasch, Petro Rychlo, 2021-10-11 In den Anfangsjahren des 20. Jahrhunderts verschreibt sich eine neoromantisch inspirierte literarische Strömung der zeitgemäßen Suche nach einer modernen in der Kunst aufgehobenen Religiosität der Magische Realismus. Maßgeblich bei der Formierung dieser Strömung sind neben dem französischen r nouveau catholique Vertreterinnen und Vertreter der Jüdischen Renaissance. Während sich Einzelstudien bisher zumeist entweder auf religionsphilosophische Fragestellungen aus dem Bereich der Jüdischen Studien oder auf Fragestellungen der germanistischen Literaturwissenschaft fokussierten, eröffnet der vorliegende Band transdisziplinäre Zugänge. Die fruchtbaren Wechselbeziehungen zwischen Jüdischer Renaissance und der deutschsprachigen Literatur des Magischen Realismus eingeschlossen, aus dem Hebräischen ins Deutsche übertragene Texte werden hier erstmals systematisch reflektiert und in exemplarischen Einzelstudien ausdifferenziert. In the early years of the 20th century one of the Neoromanticism inspired literary trends begins a time determined search for modern religiosity localized in the art of Magical Realism. Along with the French r nouveau catholique representatives of the Jewish Renaissance were also actively involved in the formation of this trend. While some studies have so far focused on religious and philosophical issues in the field of Jewish studies or on the issues of German literary studies this volume opens new transdisciplinary approaches The productive relationship between the Jewish Renaissance and the German literature of Magical Realism including Hebrew texts translated into German is for the first time systematically reflected on and differentiated here in individual exemplary studies The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez,Victoria A.

Chevalier,2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism K.

Sasser,2014-09-02 Magical Realism and Cosmopolitanism details a variety of functionalities of the mode of magical realism focusing on its capacity to construct sociological representations of belonging This usage is traced closely in the novels of Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Cristina Garc a and Helen Oyeyemi Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America Jerónimo Arellano,2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in LatinAmerica is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture

Patriarchy and Power in Magical Realism Maryam Ebadi Asayesh,2017-08-21 Although the term magic al realism appeared in 1925 in pictorial art in Germany it became well known with the boom of magical realist fiction in Latin America in the 1960s Since the 1980s it has become one of the popular modes of writing worldwide Due to its oxymoronic and hybrid nature it has caught the attention of critics Some have called it a postcolonial form of writing because of its prominence in postcolonial countries while others have called it a postmodern mode because of the time of its emergence and the techniques applied in these kinds of novels This book discusses how magical realism was used in the works of three contemporary female writers Indigo or Mapping the Waters 1992 by the British Marina Warner The House of the Spirits 1982 by the Latin American writer Isabel Allende and Fatma a novel of Arabia 2002 by the Saudi Arabian Raja Alem It shows how by applying magical realism these writers empowered women Using revisionary nostalgia these works changed the process of history writing by the powerful showed the presence of women and gave voice to their unheard stories Even the techniques applied in these novels presented the clash with patriarchy and power Transgressing Frontiers Ngong Toh,2021-04-02 The focus of this book is to assess through language and literary studies in interpretation the epistemic representation of frontiers in its shifting and fixing categories The contributing researchers stress on the fact that crisscrossing has taken its toll on communities and disciplines and that hegemonic positions are becoming increasingly redundant and provocative Frontier discourse is therefore a socio political and culturally oriented discourse Importing it to language and literary studies also shows that literary circles like language are equally shifting and erasing borderlines The chapters discuss crisscrossing of frontiers both as geography and epistemology This is in line with the new cultural ontology that opens up new interpretations and shifts from previous ones in the disciplines of Language Linguistics Arts and Literature The book pulls together a wide range of issues based on a plurality of theoretical assumptions The issues presented are grouped into three broad sections Section one looks at the creation of the self as a way to dismantle the other In section two the focus is on linguistic shifts and the fact that all languages need space in multilingual societies And section three shows how people travel out of their homelands to seek comfort Resourceful insightful and incisive the book offers depth and breadth in refined scholarship The contributors are masterly in their handling of borderlines between ideology and iconoclasm globalisation and nationalism memory and nation gender and identity official and indigenous languages self other dialectics migration and identity The book is an invaluable asset to researchers and students with a penchant for interdisciplinarity intertextuality multiculturalism and globalisation Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Bénédicte Meillon,2022-11-07 Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Liminal Realism and Poetic Echoes of the Earth tackles the reenchantment process at work in a part of contemporary ecoliterature that is marked by the resurfacing of the song of the earth topos and of Gaia images Focusing on the postmodernist braiding of various indigenous and ecofeminist ontologies close readings of the animistic and totemic dimensions of the stories at hand lead to the theorizing of liminal realism a mode that shares much with magical realism but that is approached through an ecopoetic lens specifically working an interspecies kind of magic situating readers in between human and other than human worlds This book promotes a worldview based on relationships of reciprocity and symbiosis It restores our capacity for wonder together with our sensitive intelligence Liminal realism adopts a stance in between scientific mythical and poetic worldviews as it calls attention to the soundscapes odorscapes feelscapes and landscapes of the world This monograph offers an original transdisciplinary and cross Atlantic take on ecopoetics as it straddles the two academic worlds and sparks a conversation between artworks theories and studies emerging from the English speaking world as well as from Francophone contexts Entangling the materiality of language back within the flesh of the world this book and the texts under study provide insight into the fundamentally sympoietic dimension of ecopoiesis
