Business Ethics and Stakeholder Management Juergen-Matthias Seeler, 2012-02-04 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade Excellent language English abstract Business ethics is a matter of increasing importance and public awareness Recent scandals and the financial crisis have suggested that the standard of business ethics is not high and that corporate behaviour should not solely be oriented to profit goals Rather a firm s ethical conduct should be part of its focus While discussions of ethical questions in a market economy are mainly related to large firms this thesis specifically aims at revealing potential problem issues and solutions for small firms These firms are often ignored when moral concerns in business are addressed This is in contrast to their importance for the economy and society of almost every country of the OECD as they constitute the majority of all companies and provide a major share of jobs The majority of the studies examining business ethics are focused on large corporations using quantitative strategies Few studies related to small business have been undertaken The question of how these firms and their owner managers could systematically engage in business ethics and ethical stakeholder management remain unanswered The thesis develops a tool which explicitly addresses this topic the Ethics Integration Guideline On the basis of a research paradigm of constructivism a study was designed which was intended to elicit and then to guide small business owner managers ethical attitudes perceptions and experiences It aimed to develop a structured guideline which can help small firm owners to integrate ethical considerations into their business activities Taking owner managers perspectives into account provides insight into the small firms context Thus practical applicability of the guideline is provided The results of the research suggested the framework for an Ethics Integration Guideline comprised Institutionalizing Organizational Ethics Programs Joseph A.
