Island Music: The History Of AIR Studios Montserrat Brian Sallerson,2022-09-28 For 10 years AIR Studios Montserrat produced many of the biggest hits that defined the 1980s On September 17 1989 it all ended in a flash of wind rain and fury The AIR Studios Montserrat recording studio owned by Sir George Martin often referred to as the Fifth Beatle operated from 1979 to 1989 on the small picturesque Caribbean island of Montserrat Playing host to some of the biggest recording artists of the 1980s this studio produced many of the hit songs integral to the musical fabric of that decade The isolated tropical environment of the studio s location on Montserrat created a unique creative environment not found anywhere else in the world To many of those who worked and recorded there it is regarded as a very special place an experience that left an indelible imprint on their lives Sadly the storied history of AIR Studios Montserrat was suddenly cut short when the destructive forces of Hurricane Hugo battered the island in September of 1989 Over 30 years later the remains of the studio lay in ruin as the island reclaims the land that was once creative fertile ground for artists such as The Police Dire Straits Paul McCartney Duran Duran and Elton John The prolific musical output from AIR Studios Montserrat cemented its place in music history and world culture The studio s sudden demise at the hands of Hurricane Hugo creates an emotional ending to an important artistic enclave that touched so many people around the world The story of its creation operation and demise needs to be told so it can be appreciated by the millions of music fans whose lives were defined by the music recorded there

The impact of art therapy on mental health and well-being Helena José, Joao Apostolo, Luciano Vitorino, Luis Manuel Mota de Sousa, Martina Giusti, 2023-12-22 In 2019 the WHO came out with a scoping review related to the evidence on the role of the arts in improving health and well being In the last yeast in fact literature has recognized the direct and indirect benefits of art in the prevention and promotion of mental and physical health and in the management and treatment of disease Although some countries have made progress in developing policies that make use of the arts to support health and well being many have not yet addressed the opportunities that exist for using the arts to support health and for others policy activities have been time limited Nonetheless the relationship between art and health has existed since the birth of medicine itself and has strongly influenced its history and its evolution Art therapy is the main expression of art in health care The integration of art in traditional health assistance paths sustains the need to have a holistic approach to health wellness and well being both of patients and other stakeholders including caregivers and healthcare professionals Currently the main area of art therapy application is mental health with especially regards to disability both in developmental age and in elderly and both to cognitive and physical impairment and dementia However it is important to remark that mental health does not only refer to mental illness but also to people s emotional psychological and social well being These last cases have particularly worsened with the long lockdown periods due to the COVID 19 pandemic
