[Today's Date]

[Hiring Manager's Name]

123 Company Address

Company's City, State, Zip Code

(xxx) xxx-xxxx

Dear [Mr./Ms./Mx.] [Hiring Manager's Last Name],

The first paragraph should contain a self-introduction. Write who you are, where your expertise lies, where you found the job posting (or who referred you), and why you want to apply.

The second paragraph should respond directly to the job description. Describe how your relevant experiences, skills, and abilities help you meet the company's needs. To make that easier, you can (and should) literally include words and phrases from the job description here.

- You can also include a bulleted list of your accomplishments
- Make sure you quantify (add numbers to) these bullet points
- A cover letter with numbers is 100% better than one without

To go the extra mile, research the company and try to find out what they are doing — and why— given the current state of their industry. Explain how you can fit into that framework, and help push the company forward and achieve any goals you suspect they have.

The final paragraph is the "call to action" portion of your cover letter. Inform the hiring manager that you'd love to get interviewed. Give them your contact information. Tell them you'll reach out again next week if you don't hear back. Thank them for their time.

Sincerely,

Thomas Beasley

Career Essentials: The Cover Letter Dale Mayer, 2011-05-20 Today's economy leaves little room for second chances in the job market Hiring managers are swamped with applications What are you doing to rise to the top of the pile and get noticed If it isn't creating a cover letter driven by facts and filled with punch you aren't doing enough. The cover letter is often overlooked as a key marketing tool, the perfect introduction. It can be blank and uninteresting or it can offer the potential employer exactly what they are seeking. Don't overlook this simple step that can improve your chances over other candidates. This book walks you through the various elements of a good cover letter, taking you through each step with plenty of examples to show exactly what you need to know to create the best cover letter over and over again. Make yours the one that brings the light of relief into the recruiter's eye as they see the perfect candidate. At just over a hundred pages, this concise, easy-to-read guide is full of professional information that will make your job search take off. The Marketing of Works Sergiy E. Pogodayev, 2021-07-30

This book is the first to describe a new type of marketing, namely the marketing of works. This is the line of marketing activity that provides search and receiving orders to meet the effective demand of customers for the manufacture, repair, modernization, re-equipment, or liquidation of the customer's facilities with a change in their market value and without transferring ownership to these objects from the customer to the executor of works. The book will show the reader that works are a type of production activity that changes the market value of the objects being processed as opposed to the services and provides definitions of concepts at the end of each chapter. It will serve to provide marketing theorists with many opportunities for research that will enable them to make their own scientific discoveries and acquire new scientific results. JOB SEARCH PRO SHIKHAR SINGH (THE ZENITH), Are you a motivated and organized individual with a passion for helping others find their dream careers?
