Bizarre Casting Choices Ethan Parker,AI,2025-03-29 Bizarre Casting Choices explores the often surprising world of casting decisions in film and television It examines why actors who seem completely wrong for a role are sometimes chosen and the impact these choices have on the final product The book argues that these seemingly odd pairings can add unexpected dimensions to characters challenging audience expectations The book delves into instances of intentional miscasting and casting decisions that on the surface seem illogical For example understanding these choices requires considering factors beyond simple talent such as star power and directorial vision It also explores how historical context and shifting cultural norms impact casting decisions particularly in biographical films Beginning with a definition of bizarre casting the book progresses through case studies analyzing factors that contribute to these decisions It considers the financial aspects of casting the director's role in challenging conventional choices and the impact of casting controversies. Ultimately the book emphasizes the ethics of casting especially in biographical works and the filmmaker's responsibility to portray subjects accurately.

Runaway Groom Ron Peterson, 2025-11-04 A father seeks answers in the thirty year old missing persons case of his son who disappeared two days before his wedding. Good hearted country boy Petie Miller vanishes without a trace two days before his wedding in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley in 1983. Some speculate it's a case of cold feet but investigators suspect cold blooded murder. The bride's stepfather a violent career criminal named Charlie Almond is the prime suspect. Circumstantial evidence suggests that Almond killed Miller and successfully disposed of the body. But with no witnesses, no forensic evidence and no body Almond is allowed to walk free. Meanwhile Miller's father never stops seeking answers about what happened to his son. For three decades he tirelessly pushes the investigation forward imploring the authorities to keep his son's case file open. Finally thirty two years later in 2015 new witnesses emerge and Almond now an octogenarian is charged with first degree murder. Chances of a guilty verdict seem slim but special prosecutor Phil Figura known in courtrooms as the Dragonslayer is determined to bring justice. Can Figura win a conviction in the oldest coldest no body murder trial in United States history? Bestselling true crime author Ron Peterson Jr was provided exclusive access to the police case file to research this compelling story. He interviewed over fifty sources including family members of both Petie Miller and Charlie Almond and worked closely with prosecutor Phil Figura and lead investigator Aaron LeVeck to chronicle the incredible true events in this book. In a case where justice seems impossible could the truth finally prevail or will a killer once again slip away.
