The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair,Rebecca Fasselt,Carly McLaughlin,2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Last Call Elon

Green,2021-03-09 WINNER OF THE EDGAR AWARD FOR BEST FACT CRIME A terrific harrowing true crime account of an elusive serial killer who preyed upon gay men in the 1990s The New York Times Editor s Pick In this astonishing and powerful work of nonfiction Green meticulously reports on a series of baffling and brutal crimes targeting gay men It is an investigation filled with twists and turns but this is much more than a compelling true crime story Green has shed light on those whose lives for too long have been forgotten and rescued an important part of American history David Grann 1 New York Times bestselling author of Killers of the Flower Moon The gripping true story told here for the first time of the Last Call Killer and the gay community of New York City that he preyed upon The Townhouse Bar midtown July 1992 The piano player seems to know every song ever written the crowd belts out the lyrics to their favorites and a man standing nearby is drinking a Scotch and water The man strikes the piano player as forgettable He looks bland and inconspicuous Not at all what you think a serial killer looks like But that s what he is and tonight he has his sights set on a gray haired man He will not be his first victim Nor will he be his last The Last Call Killer preyed upon gay men in New York in the 80s and 90s and had all the hallmarks of the most notorious serial killers Yet because of the sexuality of his victims the skyhigh murder rates and the AIDS epidemic his murders have been almost entirely forgotten This gripping true crime narrative tells the story of the Last Call Killer and the decades long chase to find him And at the same time it paints a portrait of his victims and a vibrant community navigating threat and resilience

The Life of Texts Kiene Brillenburg Wurth, Ann Rigney, 2019-11-08 This innovative introduction to literary studies takes the life of texts as its overarching frame It provides a conceptual and methodological toolbox for analysing novels poems and all sorts of other texts as they circulate in oral print and digital form It shows how texts inspire each other and how stories migrate across media It explains why literature has been interpreted in different ways across time Finally it asks why some texts fascinate people so much that they are reproduced and passed on to others in the form of new editions in adaptations to film and theatre and last but not least in the ways we look at the world and act out our lives The Life of Texts is designed around particular issues rather than the history of the discipline as such Each chapter concentrates on a different aspect of the life of texts and introduces the key debates and concepts relevant to its study The issues discussed range from aesthetics and narrative to intertextuality and intermediality from reading practices to hermeneutics and semiotics popular culture to literary canonisation postcolonial criticism to cultural memory Key concepts and schools in the field have been highlighted in the text and then collected in a glossary for ease of reference All chapters are richly illustrated with examples from different language areas
