Super factor money Hartmut Michael Moltgen, 2022-12-14 Studies on inequality in modern society and criticism of the euro are leading us to think about the true value of money A new monetary system is needed One that belongs to the people money from the hands of the citizen A safe money and a corresponding financial system Plus the stability that comes with the introduction of a basic salary The guarantee that no citizen has to live in inhumane conditions helps to achieve prosperity for all Without such a social approach democracy cannot survive in the long run A free market in the long run sustainable economic activity and constant growth impulses are not possible But does the utopia of a new reality with more justice and more humane coexistence have a chance
