Information from Written Discourse Norma Nell Faubion, 1971 Two experimental groups and a control were employed for this research which was designed to measure the effect of cloze training upon the reading comprehension of fourth grade pupils when the training focused upon the use of structure words and verbalization by students concerning responses to cloze exercises Three fourth grade classrooms in an elementary school in South Texas were randomly assigned to the two treatment groups and the control Stratified random samples of passages approximately one hundred words in length were taken from three social studies textbooks The passages were assigned to one of two forms of a cloze test of ability to gain information The two forms were administered to a group of fourth grade students for the purpose of establishing reliability Reliability scores of 909 and 933 were obtained for Form A and Form B respectively Stratified random samples from the three textbooks were used to develop a series of ten cloze lessons each containing two cloze exercises Half of the exercises utilized the fifth word deletion pattern and half utilized a structure word deletion pattern Modern Approaches to Foreign Language Training George Haskell Brown, Alfred I. Fiks, 1967 The report presents detailed non evaluative descriptions of instructional methods used in a sample of outstanding language training centers Included are 19 different training programs which together represent a student age range from subteens to adults both intensive and non intensive courses military and civilian students and governmental as well as nongovernmental programs For each program surveyed the report presents fairly detailed description of such features as training objectives methods of teaching phonology grammar and vocabulary language laboratory activities student evaluation procedures and faculty characteristics Of the language teaching programs 15 out of 19 were characterized by their respective officials as adhering to the audio lingual A L methods Two key features were shared by the training centers primary emphasis on aural comprehension and speaking skills and an inductive approach to grammar Author Chicorel Index to Reading and Learning Disabilities, an Annotate Guide: Books Marietta
