The Devils' Gospels Christopher Gasson, 2025-01-28 Can we find religious inspiration in great atheist writing It is a paradoxical challenge but an urgent one The gap between secular and religious understandings of the world has become impossibly wide It is damaging Christianity and cutting young people off from the possibility of faith Yet if God exists everything we learn about the world should tell us more about God The Devils Gospels started in a youth discussion group at Oxford's University Church Each month the author would introduce a different atheist book to the teenagers to see where the discussion would lead Four of the best are given the status of gospels here Friedrich Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra Jacques Derrida's Writing and Difference Stephen Hawking's A Brief History of Time and Richard Dawkins' The God Delusion These books each have in their own way shaped the world we live in today The Devils Gospels captures the energy of their ideas in language simple enough for a bright 11 year old to understand and uses it to shed greater light on the nature of God But it is not just written for intelligent teenagers trying to find their way towards belief It is aimed at two other important groups Christians who feel that they aren't getting the answers that matter from the Church and non believers who want to explore the possibility that there may be more to life than physics and biology
