You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges, 2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit's r/NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit's flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner

The conference was postponed from June and much of it conducted online due to the COVID-19 restrictions. The conference is one of the principal occasions for researchers and practitioners of AI to meet and discuss the latest trends and challenges in all fields of AI and to demonstrate innovative applications and uses of advanced AI technology. The book also includes the proceedings of the 10th Conference on Prestigious Applications of Artificial Intelligence (PAIS 2020) held at the same time. A record number of more than 1,700 submissions was received for ECAI 2020, of which 1,443 were reviewed. Of these, 361 full papers and 36 highlight papers were accepted, an acceptance rate of 25% for full papers and 45% for highlight papers. The book is divided into three sections: ECAI full papers, ECAI highlight papers, and PAIS papers. The topics of these papers cover all aspects of AI, including Agent-based and Multi-agent Systems, Computational Intelligence, Constraints and Satisfiability, Games, and Virtual Environments, Heuristic Search, Human Aspects in AI, Information Retrieval and Filtering, Knowledge Representation and Reasoning, Machine Learning, Multidisciplinary Topics and Applications, Natural Language Processing, Planning and Scheduling, Robotics, Safe, Explainable, and Trustworthy AI, Semantic Technologies, Uncertainty in AI, and Vision. The book will be of interest to all those whose work involves the use of AI technology.

The Politics of Social Media Manipulation Richard Rogers, Sabine Niederer, 2025-10-01 Disinformation and so-called fake news are contemporary phenomena with rich histories. Disinformation or the willful introduction of false information for the purposes of causing harm recalls infamous foreign interference operations in national media systems. Outcries over fake news or dubious stories with the trappings of news have coincided with the introduction of new media technologies that disrupt the publication, distribution, and consumption of news from the so-called rumour-mongering broadsheets centuries ago to the blogosphere recently. Designating a news organization as fake or der Lügenpresse has a darker history associated with authoritarian regimes or populist bombast diminishing the reputation of elite media and the value of inconvenient truths In a series of empirical studies using digital methods and data journalism the authors inquire into the extent to which social media have enabled the penetration of foreign disinformation operations the widespread publication and spread of dubious content as well as extreme commentators with considerable followings attacking mainstream media as fake

Designing for Democracy Jennifer Forestal, 2021-11-16 How should we fix digital technologies to support democracy instead of undermining it In Designing for Democracy Jennifer Forestal argues that accurately evaluating the democratic potential of digital spaces means studying how the built environment a primary component of our modern public square structures our activity shapes our attitudes and supports the kinds of relationships and behaviors democracy requires Drawing from a wide range of disciplines she argues that democratic spaces must be designed with three environmental characteristics that taken together afford users the ability to engage in fundamental civic practices In connecting the built environment digital technologies and democratic theory Designing for Democracy provides blueprints for democracy in a digital age
