Antisocial Andrew Marantz, 2019-10-08 Trenchant and intelligent The New York Times As seen heard on NPR New Yorker Radio Hour The New York Book Review Podcast PBS Newshour CNBC and more A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice A New York Times Notable Book of 2019 From a rising star at The New Yorker a deeply immersive chronicle of how the optimistic entrepreneurs of Silicon Valley set out to create a free and democratic internet and how the cynical propagandists of the alt right exploited that freedom to propel the extreme into the mainstream For several years Andrew Marantz a New Yorker staff writer has been embedded in two worlds The first is the world of social media entrepreneurs who acting out of naivete and reckless ambition upended all traditional means of receiving and transmitting information The second is the world of the people he calls the gate crashers the conspiracists white supremacists and nihilist trolls who have become experts at using social media to advance their corrosive agenda Antisocial ranges broadly from the first mass printed books to the trending hashtags of the present from secret gatherings of neo Fascists to the White House press briefing room and traces how the unthinkable becomes thinkable and then how it becomes reality Combining the keen narrative detail of Bill Buford's Among the Thugs and the sweep of George Packer's The Unwinding Antisocial reveals how the boundaries between technology

media and politics have been erased resulting in a deeply broken informational landscape the landscape in which we all now live Marantz shows how alienated young people are led down the rabbit hole of online radicalization and how fringe ideas spread from anonymous corners of social media to cable TV to the President's Twitter feed Marantz also sits with the creators of social media as they start to reckon with the forces they've unleashed Will they be able to solve the communication crisis they helped bring about or are their interventions too little too late

The Great Acceleration Robert Colvile, 2016-04-07 Flash crashes Speed dating Instant messaging From the devices we carry to the lives we lead everything is getting faster faster But where did this great acceleration come from And where will it lead In this vitally important new book Robert Colvile explains how the cult of disruption in Silicon Valley the ceaseless advance of technology and our own fundamental appetite for novelty and convenience have combined to speed up every aspect of daily life Drawing on the latest research this book traces the path of this acceleration through our working and social lives the food we buy and the music to which we listen It explains how it's transforming the media politics and the financial markets and asks whether our bodies and the natural environment can cope As we race towards the future into a world packed with new technologies new ideas and new discoveries this scintillating and engrossing book is an invaluable must read guide to the wonders and dangers that await us

The Perilous Public Square David E. Pozen, 2020-06-16 Americans of all political persuasions fear that free speech is under attack This may seem strange at a time when legal protections for free expression remain strong and overt government censorship minimal Yet a range of political economic social and technological developments have raised profound challenges for how we manage speech New threats to political discourse are mounting from the rise of authoritarian populism and national security secrecy to the decline of print journalism and public trust in experts to the fake news trolling and increasingly subtle modes of surveillance made possible by digital technologies The Perilous Public Square brings together leading thinkers to identify and investigate today's multifaceted threats to free expression They go beyond the campus and the courthouse to pinpoint key structural changes in the means of mass communication and forms of global capitalism Beginning with Tim Wu s inquiry into whether the First Amendment is obsolete Matthew Connelly Jack Goldsmith Kate Klonick Frederick Schauer Olivier Sylvain and Heather Whitney explore ways to address these dangers and preserve the essential features of a healthy democracy Their conversations with other leading thinkers including Danielle Keats Citron Jelani Cobb Frank Pasquale Geoffrey R Stone Rebecca Tushnet and Kirsten Weld cross the disciplinary boundaries of First Amendment law internet law media policy journalism legal history and legal theory offering fresh perspectives on fortifying the speech system and reinvigorating the public square

Building Brand Communities Carrie Melissa Jones, Charles Vogl, 2020-06-09 An authentic brand community is more than just people buying your product or working alongside one another This book articulates the critical roles of mutual concern common values and shared experiences in creating fiercely loyal customer and collaborator relationships Smart organizations know that creating communities is the key to unlocking unprecedented outcomes But too many mistakenly rely on superficial transactional relationships as a foundation for community when really people want something deeper Carrie Melissa Jones and Charles Vogl argue that in an authentic and enriching community members have mutual concern for one another share personal values and join together in meaningful shared experiences whether online or off On the deepest level brands must help members grow into who they want to be Jones and Vogl present practices used by global brands like Yelp Etsy Twitch Harley Davidson Salesforce Airbnb Sephora and others to connect in a meaningful way with the people critical for their success They articulate how authentic communities can serve organizational goals in seven different areas innovation talent recruitment customer retention marketing customer service building transformational movements and creating community forums They also reveal principles to grow a new brand community to critical mass This is the first comprehensive guide to a crucial differentiator that gives organizations access to untapped enthusiasm and engagement

A Medieval Oxfordshire Village P. D. A. Harvey,1965 Social Media and Politics in Turkey , Erkan Saka,2019-11-20 This book focuses on media and zeroes in some critical and oppositional aspects of internet usage within Turkey It does not radically challenge some works on Turkey s recent grand narrative but presents empirical and minor accounts to this However in elaborating the long history of relatively resilient and multilayered oppositional digital media networks in Turkey this book insists that an idea of authoritarian turn may be misleading as the internet communications are exposed to repressive measures and surveillance tactics from the very beginning of the country s recent past While discussing from citizen journalism practices to political trolls and from Gezi Park protests to disinformation campaigns this book pays tribute to digital activists and points out that mobilizing through digital networks can present glimmers of hope in challenging authoritarian regimes
