Austin,Patrick L. Hamilton,2019-11-05 Taking a multifaceted approach to attitudes toward race through popular culture and the American superhero All New All Different explores a topic that until now has only received more discrete examination Considering Marvel DC and lesser known texts and heroes this illuminating work charts eighty years of evolution in the portrayal of race in comics as well as in film and on television Beginning with World War II the authors trace the vexed depictions in early superhero stories considering both Asian villains and nonwhite sidekicks While the emergence of Black Panther Black Lightning Luke Cage Storm and other heroes in the 1960s and 1970s reflected a cultural revolution the book reveals how nonwhite superheroes nonetheless remained grounded in outdated assumptions Multiculturalism encouraged further diversity with 1980s superteams the minority run company Milestone s new characters in the 1990s and the arrival of Ms Marvel a Pakistani American heroine and a new Latinx Spider Man in the 2000s Concluding with contemporary efforts to make both a profit and a positive impact on society All New All Different enriches our understanding of the complex issues of racial representation in American popular culture Viewers in Distress Stefka Mihaylova,2023-07-05 Conventional notions of avant garde art suggest innovative artists rebelling against artistic convention and social propriety shocking unwilling audiences into new ways of seeing and living Viewers in Distress tells a different story Beginning in the tumultuous 1990s after the fall of the Berlin Wall and in the wake of the Los Angeles riots rebellious spectators in American and British theaters broke with theater decorum and voiced their radical interpretations of shows that were not meant to be radical In doing so audiences tried to understand the complex racial gender and religious politics of their times while insisting that liberal societies fulfill their promise of dignity for all Stefka Mihaylova argues that such non conforming viewing amounts to an avant garde of its own a bold reimagining of how we live together and tell stories of our lives together aimed to achieve liberalism s promise In telling this story she analyzes the production and reception politics of works by Susan Lori Parks Sarah Kane Forced Entertainment Gurpreet Kaur Bhatti and Young Jean Lee as well as non theatrical controversies such as the conflict over Halloween costumes at Yale in 2015 At the core of spectators discontent this book suggests is an effort to figure out how to get along with people different from ourselves in the diverse U S and British societies in which we live Library Programs and Services Stacey Greenwell,G.
