Free Ride Robert Levine, 2012-09-06 Information wants to be free says influential technologist Stewart Brand at a 1984 hacker convention. These words became the mantra that shaped the Internet and the conflict he predicted has led to a revolution in the way that our culture is funded and consumed. We have come to demand free content online, mistaking the packaging of physical products for what we were actually paying for the creative content. Newspapers are being pressurised to give their content away for free, online music sales have plummeted due to piracy and Amazon is using its market power to drive down the price of ebooks. Technology companies are making millions from content created and funded by others, reducing the value of culture in the process. How did the media industry lose control over its destiny? What are the consequences? And are we headed for cultural meltdown if the media can't stop the free ride? TV Outside the Box Neil Landau, 2015-12-22 TV Outside the Box: Trailblazing in the Digital Television Revolution explores the new and exploding universe of on-demand OTT over-the-top networks: Netflix, Amazon, Hulu, Crackle, CW Seed, Vimeo, AwesomenessTV, and many more. Featuring in-depth conversations with game-changing content creators, industry mavericks, and leading cultural influencers, TV Outside the Box is essential reading for anyone interested in the dynamics of a global media revolution while it's happening. Readers will discover how the new disruptors of traditional television models are shaping the future of the television and feature film business. You'll hear directly from the visionaries behind it all, from concept genesis to predictions for the future of streaming platforms, their strategies for acquisitions and development of new original content, and how the revolution is providing unprecedented opportunities for both established and emerging talent. What's different about storytelling for the progressive risk-taking networks who are delivering provocative, groundbreaking, binge-worthy content without the restraints of the traditional advertiser-supported programming model? Through interviews with the showrunners, content creators, and producers of dozens of trailblazing series, including Orange Is the New Black, House of Cards, Transparent, and many more, you'll learn how and why the best and the brightest TV content creators and filmmakers are defining the new digital entertainment age and how you can too. Half a Decade of Linux-y Shenanigans Bryan Lunduke, 2018-02-05 Every article written between 2012 and 2017 by Bryan Lunduke. Originally published by Network World, these articles represent a snapshot, a sort of time capsule of the state of Linux, Open Source, and alternative Operating Systems during that half-decade. It was a crazy time, covered by an equally crazy guy. A Sense of Community Ann-Gee Lee, 2014-05-14 Television's Community follows the shenanigans of a diverse group of traditional and nontraditional community college students: Jeff Winger, a former lawyer; Britta Perry, a feminist; Abed Nadir, a pop culture enthusiast; Shirley Bennett, a mother; Troy Barnes, a former jock; Annie Edison, a naive overachiever; and Pierce Hawthorne, an old-fashioned elderly man There are also Benjamin Chang the maniacal Spanish teacher and Craig Pelton the eccentric dean of Greendale Community College along with well known guest stars who play troublemaking students nutty professors and frightening administrators This collection of fresh essays familiarizes readers not only with particular characters and popular episodes but behind the scenes aspects such as screenwriting and production techniques The essayists explore narrative theme hyperreality masculinity feminism color blindness civic discourse pastiche intertextuality media consciousness how Community is influenced by other shows and films and how fans have contributed to the show
